2019 MEDIA GUIDE

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials are required for access to the press box for all University of Alabama home baseball games. All credential requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance, to Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office. Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call window (located at Gate 3, adjacent to Bryant Drive and behind home plate) 90 minutes prior to first pitch. Lot D behind the scoreboard in left field and next to the Law School parking lot is the designated lot for media parking. Media members are welcome to park anywhere around The Joe on regular game days but are encouraged to use Lot D when baseball games overlap with other campus events.

INTERVIEWS

Alabama head coach Brad Bohannon and student-athletes are available for interviews in person or, with prior arrangement, by telephone. Alabama practices will be at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Practices are open to members of the media on selected days, with Bohannon and student-athletes available prior to the start of practice, depending upon class schedules, travel or other plans. Media wishing to attend practice or arrange an interview with a student-athlete should contact Alex Thompson in the Alabama Athletics Communications Office 48 hours in advance. On game days, only postgame interviews are allowed.

GAME SERVICES

Complete team and individual statistics (box score), quotes and a running play-by-play are provided to the media who cover the Crimson Tide at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. Copies of stats, game notes and roster sheets are available in the press box. Postgame interviews with Alabama head coach Brad Bohannon and Alabama student-athletes will take place in the media room located on the first base side following a 10-minute cooling off period upon the conclusion of the games. Ample ethernet outlets and wireless internet access is available inside the pressbox and field level media room for media to write and file their story.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Visiting teams wishing to broadcast games from Sewell-Thomas Stadium are provided access to one phone line. The calls are charged to the visiting radio network. Should an additional line be required, broadcasters must arrange their own hookup through The University of Alabama Telecommunications Office at (205) 348-6300. Visiting radio broadcasters must call in advance or have their media relations office notify Alabama that they will be broadcasting the game and will require credentials.

INTERNET

Information about University of Alabama Athletics can be found on the internet at RollTide.com. Information on the site includes rosters, schedules, results, stats, box scores and biographical information. In addition, members of the media can access helpful information on covering the Tide. From the website, Tide fans also can find a link to listen to Alabama games live via the internet and follow home game action via live stats. Wireless internet is available throughout Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

CREDITS

The 2019 University of Alabama Baseball Media Guide was produced by the staff of the UA Athletics Communications office. The publication was written and edited by Alex Thompson, Cade Gossett and Jordan Wynn with editorial help from Haley Peterson and Roots Woodruff of the Athletics Communications office. Photography by UA Athletics Director of Photography Kent Gidley and his assistants, Amelia Barton and Robert Sutton. Special thanks to the Crimson Tide coaching staff, Brent Hollingsworth and Callie Andro for the cover design and the staff of the SEC office. SOCIAL MEDIA

News, video and features on the Alabama baseball team also can be found on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram by searching for AlabamaBSB.

UA VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

The University of Alabama, through Crimson Tide Productions (CTP), offers an FTP site that provides up-to-date interviews with coaches and athletes, taped video highlights and narrated tape packages from September through May. On occasion, the baseball team is featured in this package. Please call the Athletics Communications Office for more details at (205) 348-6084. During the spring, the baseball team's progress will be covered on "Crimson Tide This Week," a 30-minute weekly regional sports show.

SEC VIDEO FEEDS/TELEVISION

Links to download footage for broadcast television use only will be emailed when footage is made available. Throughout the season, video features on the baseball team will be available on RollTide.com. For questions, please contact Christopher England by e-mail at cengland@ia.ua.edu.

RADIO NETWORK

Alabama baseball can be heard on the radio by tuning into one of the 30-plus stations state-wide that are part of the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). Chris Stewart will provide play-by-play for his 20th straight season with Lee Tracey providing the color commentary for all Tide baseball games in 2019.

WHERE LEGENDS ARE MADE

A

THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA®

UA.EDU | #WHERELEGENDSAREMADE

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama in July 2015, bringing with him 30 years of experience in higher education. He had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and department head of mechanical engineering. During this time, he also founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center, the Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, which continues to thrive today.

Prior to returning to UA as president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. Before his time at LSU, he served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. Under his leadership, both institutions opened new facilities and saw great success in student recruitment and retention.

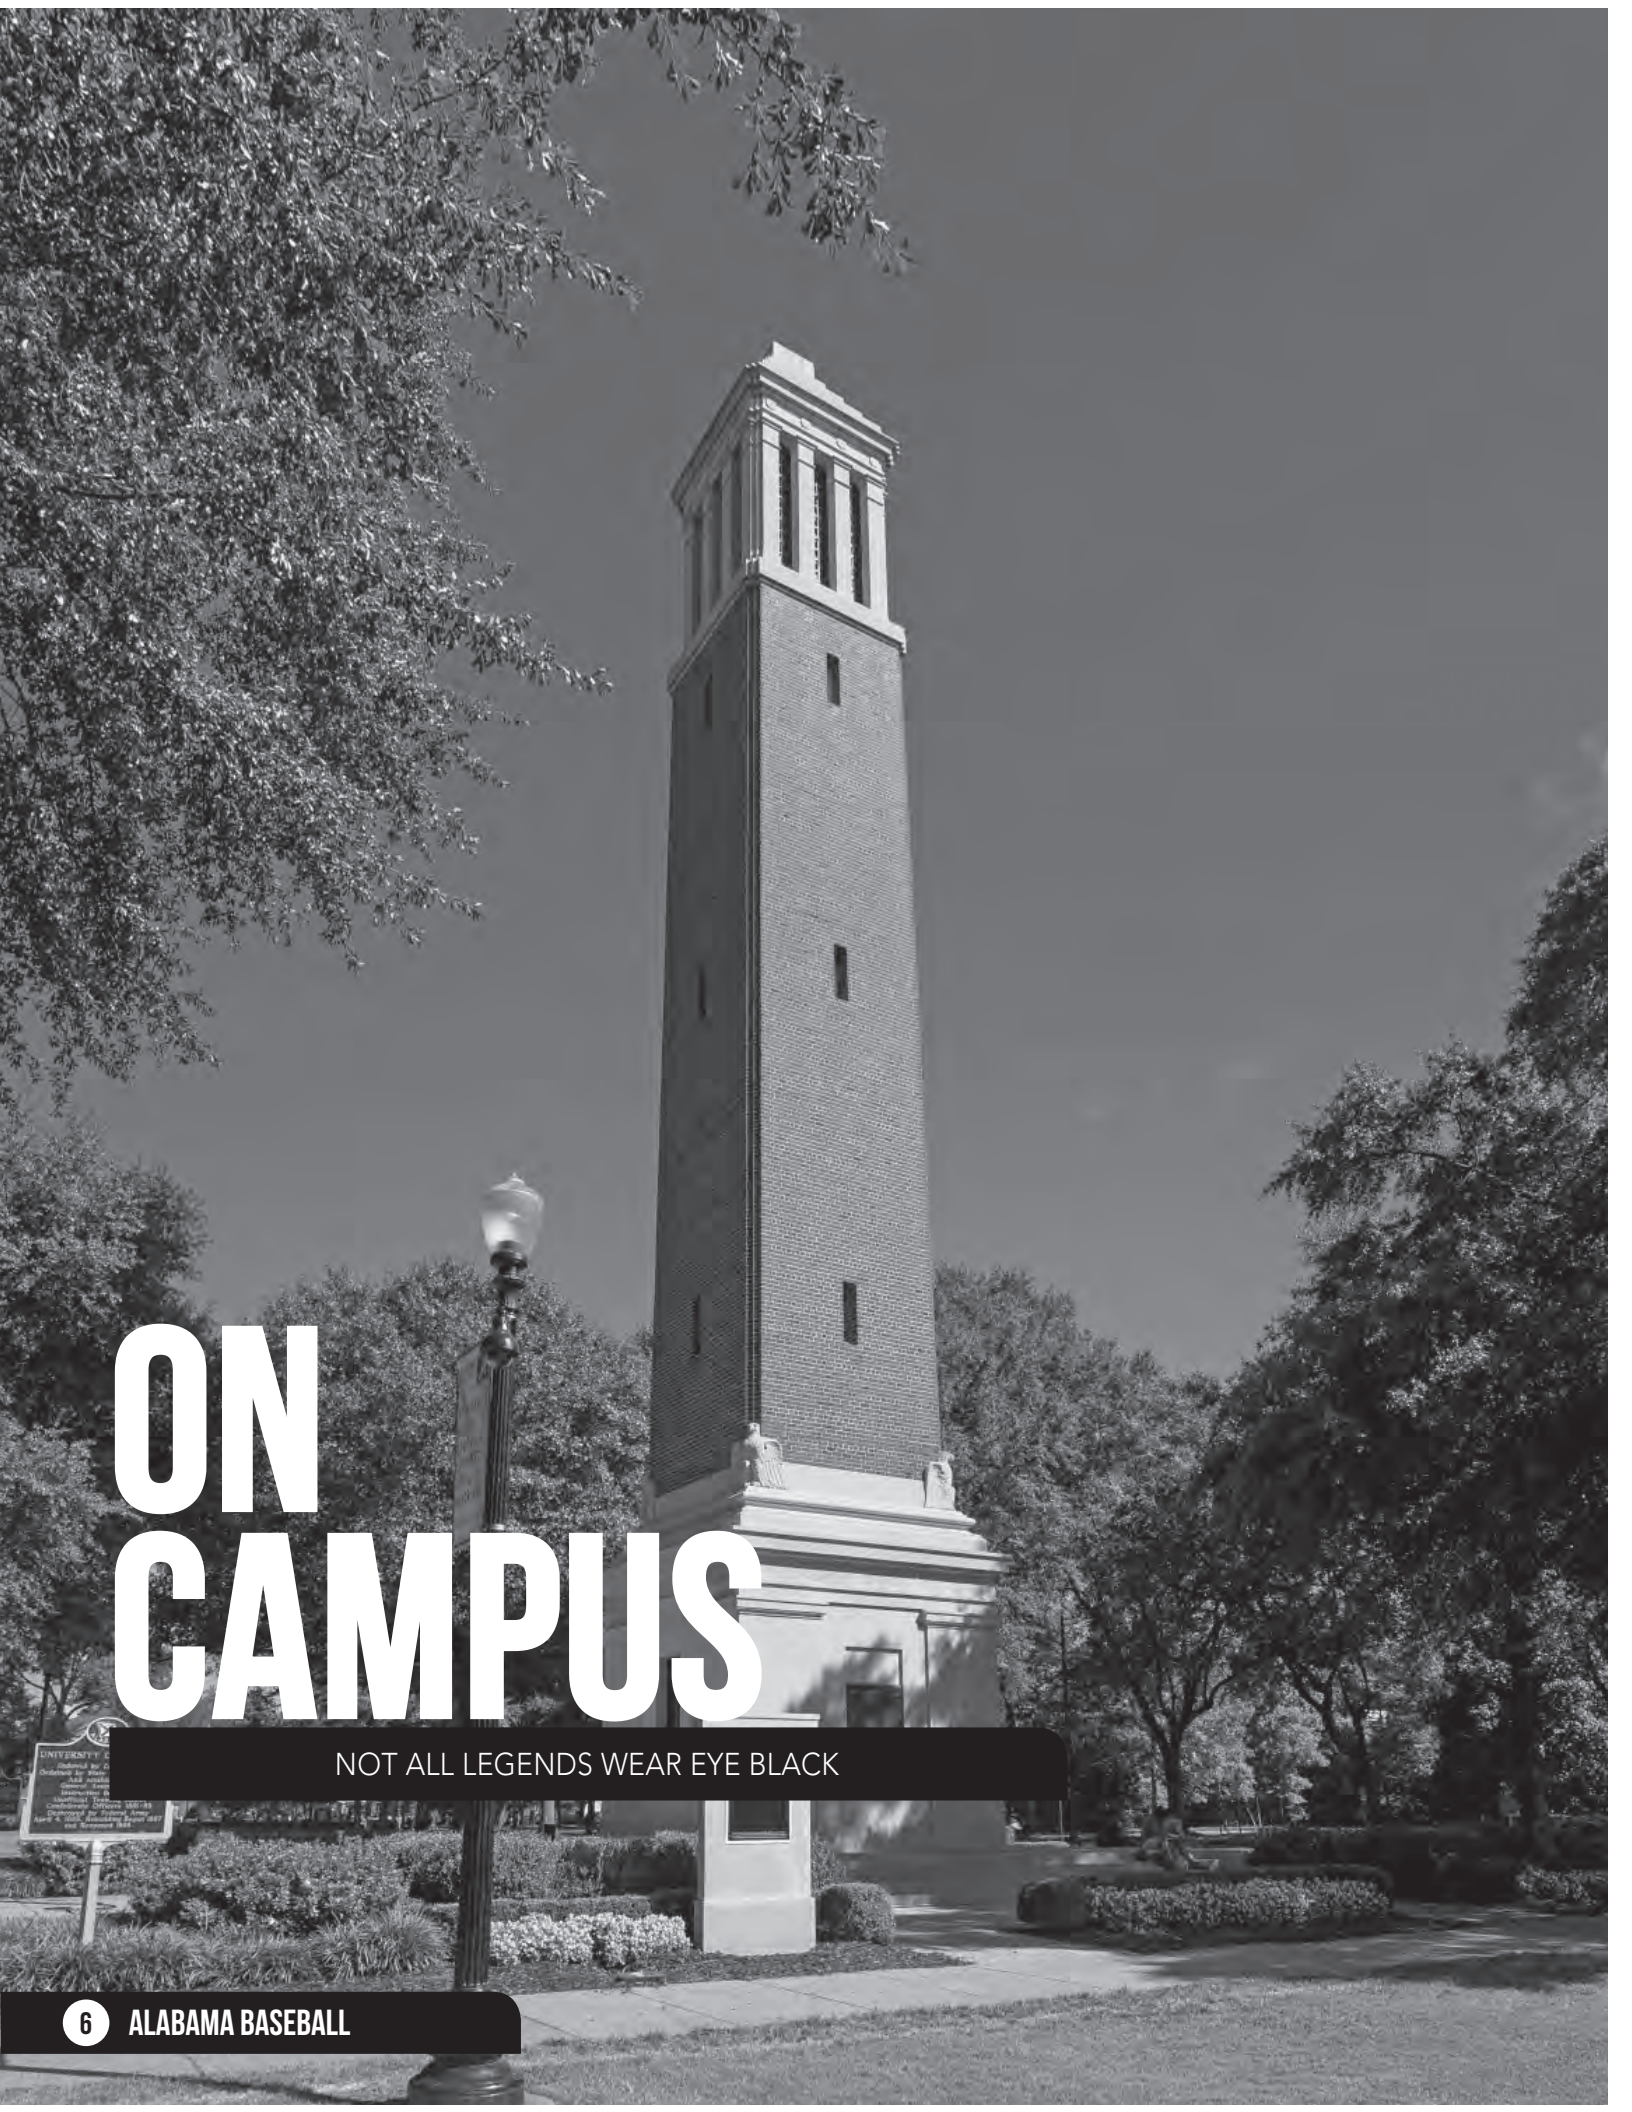

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's degree and doctorate in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively. It was also at Texas A&M that he met and fell in love with his wife, Susan. They have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen. They are also the proud grandparents to two granddaughters, Livi and Sadie.

Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University by developing a strategic plan that maps out the aspirations of the campus. By renewing UA's commitment to its students and the campus community, and with a focus on significantly increasing investments in faculty and research, Dr. Bell's plan has already improved the quality of life for citizens across our state, nation and world. Through the strategic plan's initiatives, multiple research institutes have been formed on campus, creating an interdisciplinary approach to address national and worldwide challenges in the areas of water, transportation and lifespan research.

Under Dr. Bell's leadership, The University of Alabama sustains an enrollment of the best and brightest students in the nation. As Alabama's premier flagship university, the Capstone continues to celebrate the impressive achievements of its faculty, staff, students and student-athletes. With more than 600 National Merit Scholars enrolled, UA is a leader among public universities nationwide. The University of Alabama is undeniably the place Where Legends are Made.

ON CAMPUS

NOT ALL LEGENDS WEAR EYE BLACK

The University of Alabama knows a thing or two about legends.

Legends have been made in our academic halls, on our athletic fields and courts, and through our endeavors to shape a better world through our teaching, research and service.

UA legends earn prestigious honors, such as Pulitzer Prizes, Emmy Awards, Heisman Trophies and Medals of Honor. They wear names like inventor, entrepreneur, best-selling author, pioneer, CEO, founder and national champion.

Here are just a few of our legends:

Best-selling authors: Harper Lee, "To Kill a Mockingbird"; Winston Groom, "Forrest Gump"; Kathryn Stockett, "The Help"; Mark Childress, "Crazy in Alabama"; and T.S. Stripling, "The Store."

CEO/Chairman of the Board/President: Marillyn Hewson, Lockheed Martin; W.W. Clements, Dr Pepper Company; Sam DiPiazza, PricewaterhouseCoopers; Thom Rainer, Lifeway Christian Resources; Vicki Hollub, Occidental Petroleum.

Pioneers and Founders: Millard Fuller, Habitat for Humanity; Jimmy Wales, Wikipedia; Joe Gibbs, Golf Channel; John Hendricks, Discovery Channel; Janet Gurwitch, Laura Mercier cosmetics; Morris Dees, Southern Poverty Law Center.

Science: Dr. Edward O. Wilson, biologist, researcher and two-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author; Robert Jemison Van de Graaff, scientist and inventor.

Film and Television: Chuck Gordon, producer of "Die Hard" movies and "Field of Dreams"; Sela Ward, television and film actress; Joe Scarborough, talk show host; Jim Nabors, actor; Tom Cherones, director of "Seinfeld."

Journalism: Howell Raines, Pulitzer winner at The New York Times; John Cochran, prize-winning television journalist; Rece Davis, ESPN journalist.

It matters where you go to college. The University of Alabama is the fastest growing flagship in the country because of our commitment to excellence and the success of our graduates. For the last 11 years, UA has ranked in the top three for Goldwater Scholars, along with Harvard and Stanford. We also rank in the top three nationally for National Merit Scholars.

GREG BYRNE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Greg Byrne, one of the most acclaimed and respected administrators in collegiate athletics, began his tenure as Alabama's Director of Athletics on March 1, 2017. His role at Alabama is his third venture at the helm of a major collegiate athletics program.

Since taking over, Byrne developed and implemented The Standard, a five-year strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics as well as benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity. In addition, a 10-year comprehensive initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of an infrastructure that will drive future success was created.

Alabama Athletics celebrated its highest finish in program history in the Learfield Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season, placing 14th thanks to a national championship in football, runner-up finishes in men's and women's golf and NCAA postseason appearances by men's basketball, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track & field and men's and women's outdoor track & field. The Tide also continued its run of excellence in the classroom, leading the nation in Academic All-Americans with 11.

Prior to coming to Alabama, Byrne was Vice President for Athletics at the University of Arizona from 2010-17 and was Director of Athletics at Mississippi State University from 2008-10. With more than 20 years of experience as an athletics administrator, Byrne has fashioned an impressive administrative career hallmarked by consistent success in fundraising, innovative strategies and competitive success with a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been consistently more impactful and successful with each step up the administrative ladder. As a fundraiser, he has been directly involved in raising more than $200 million in gifts during his career. As a leader of competitive athletics programs, he has fostered major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both programs he has led. A proponent of developing student-athletes into productive people after college, Byrne has led programs that have attained academic success at levels not reached prior to his tenure.

He also has deep experience working in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), having spent 2002 to 2005 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising before a four-year stint at Mississippi State (2006-10). From 2006-08, Byrne served as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU before becoming Director of Athletics.

Under Byrne's leadership, Arizona Athletics underwent more than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities. That work was highlighted by the $72 million Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the addition of two video boards in Arizona Stadium (football), and a new scoreboard in the McKale Center (basketball). Additionally, Byrne oversaw a $30 million renovation of the McKale Center, a project that included upgraded locker rooms, seating, restrooms, concessions, enhanced lighting and a new playing floor.

At Mississippi State, where he was the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level, Byrne oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen.

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including the United States Olympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council, the Division I Football Oversight Committee and the Southeastern Conference Security Committee. He also serves as first vice president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

As the son of veteran athletics administrator Bill Byrne, one of the nation's most prominent college sports administrators with 30 years of experience as an Athletics Director, Greg Byrne has been around the enterprise of running successful athletic programs for most of his life.

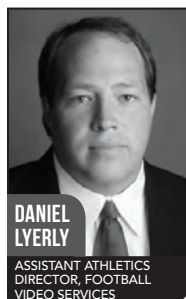

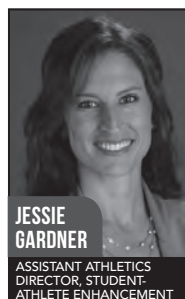

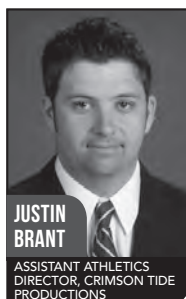

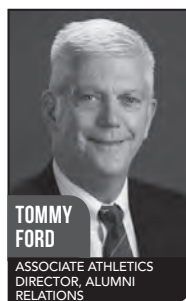

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

Dr. Jeff Laubenthal (left) and Emeel Salem (right) won the H. Boyd McWhorter Southeastern Conference Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award and a $10,000 post-graduate scholarship. It is the highest academic honor presented by the SEC office. Laubenthal also earned the 2014 Paul W. Bryant Alumni-Athlete Award for his accomplishments since leaving the University, which includes earning his medical degree from UAB and then becoming a specialist in sports and family medicine at the West Alabama Family Practice Center in Tuscaloosa.

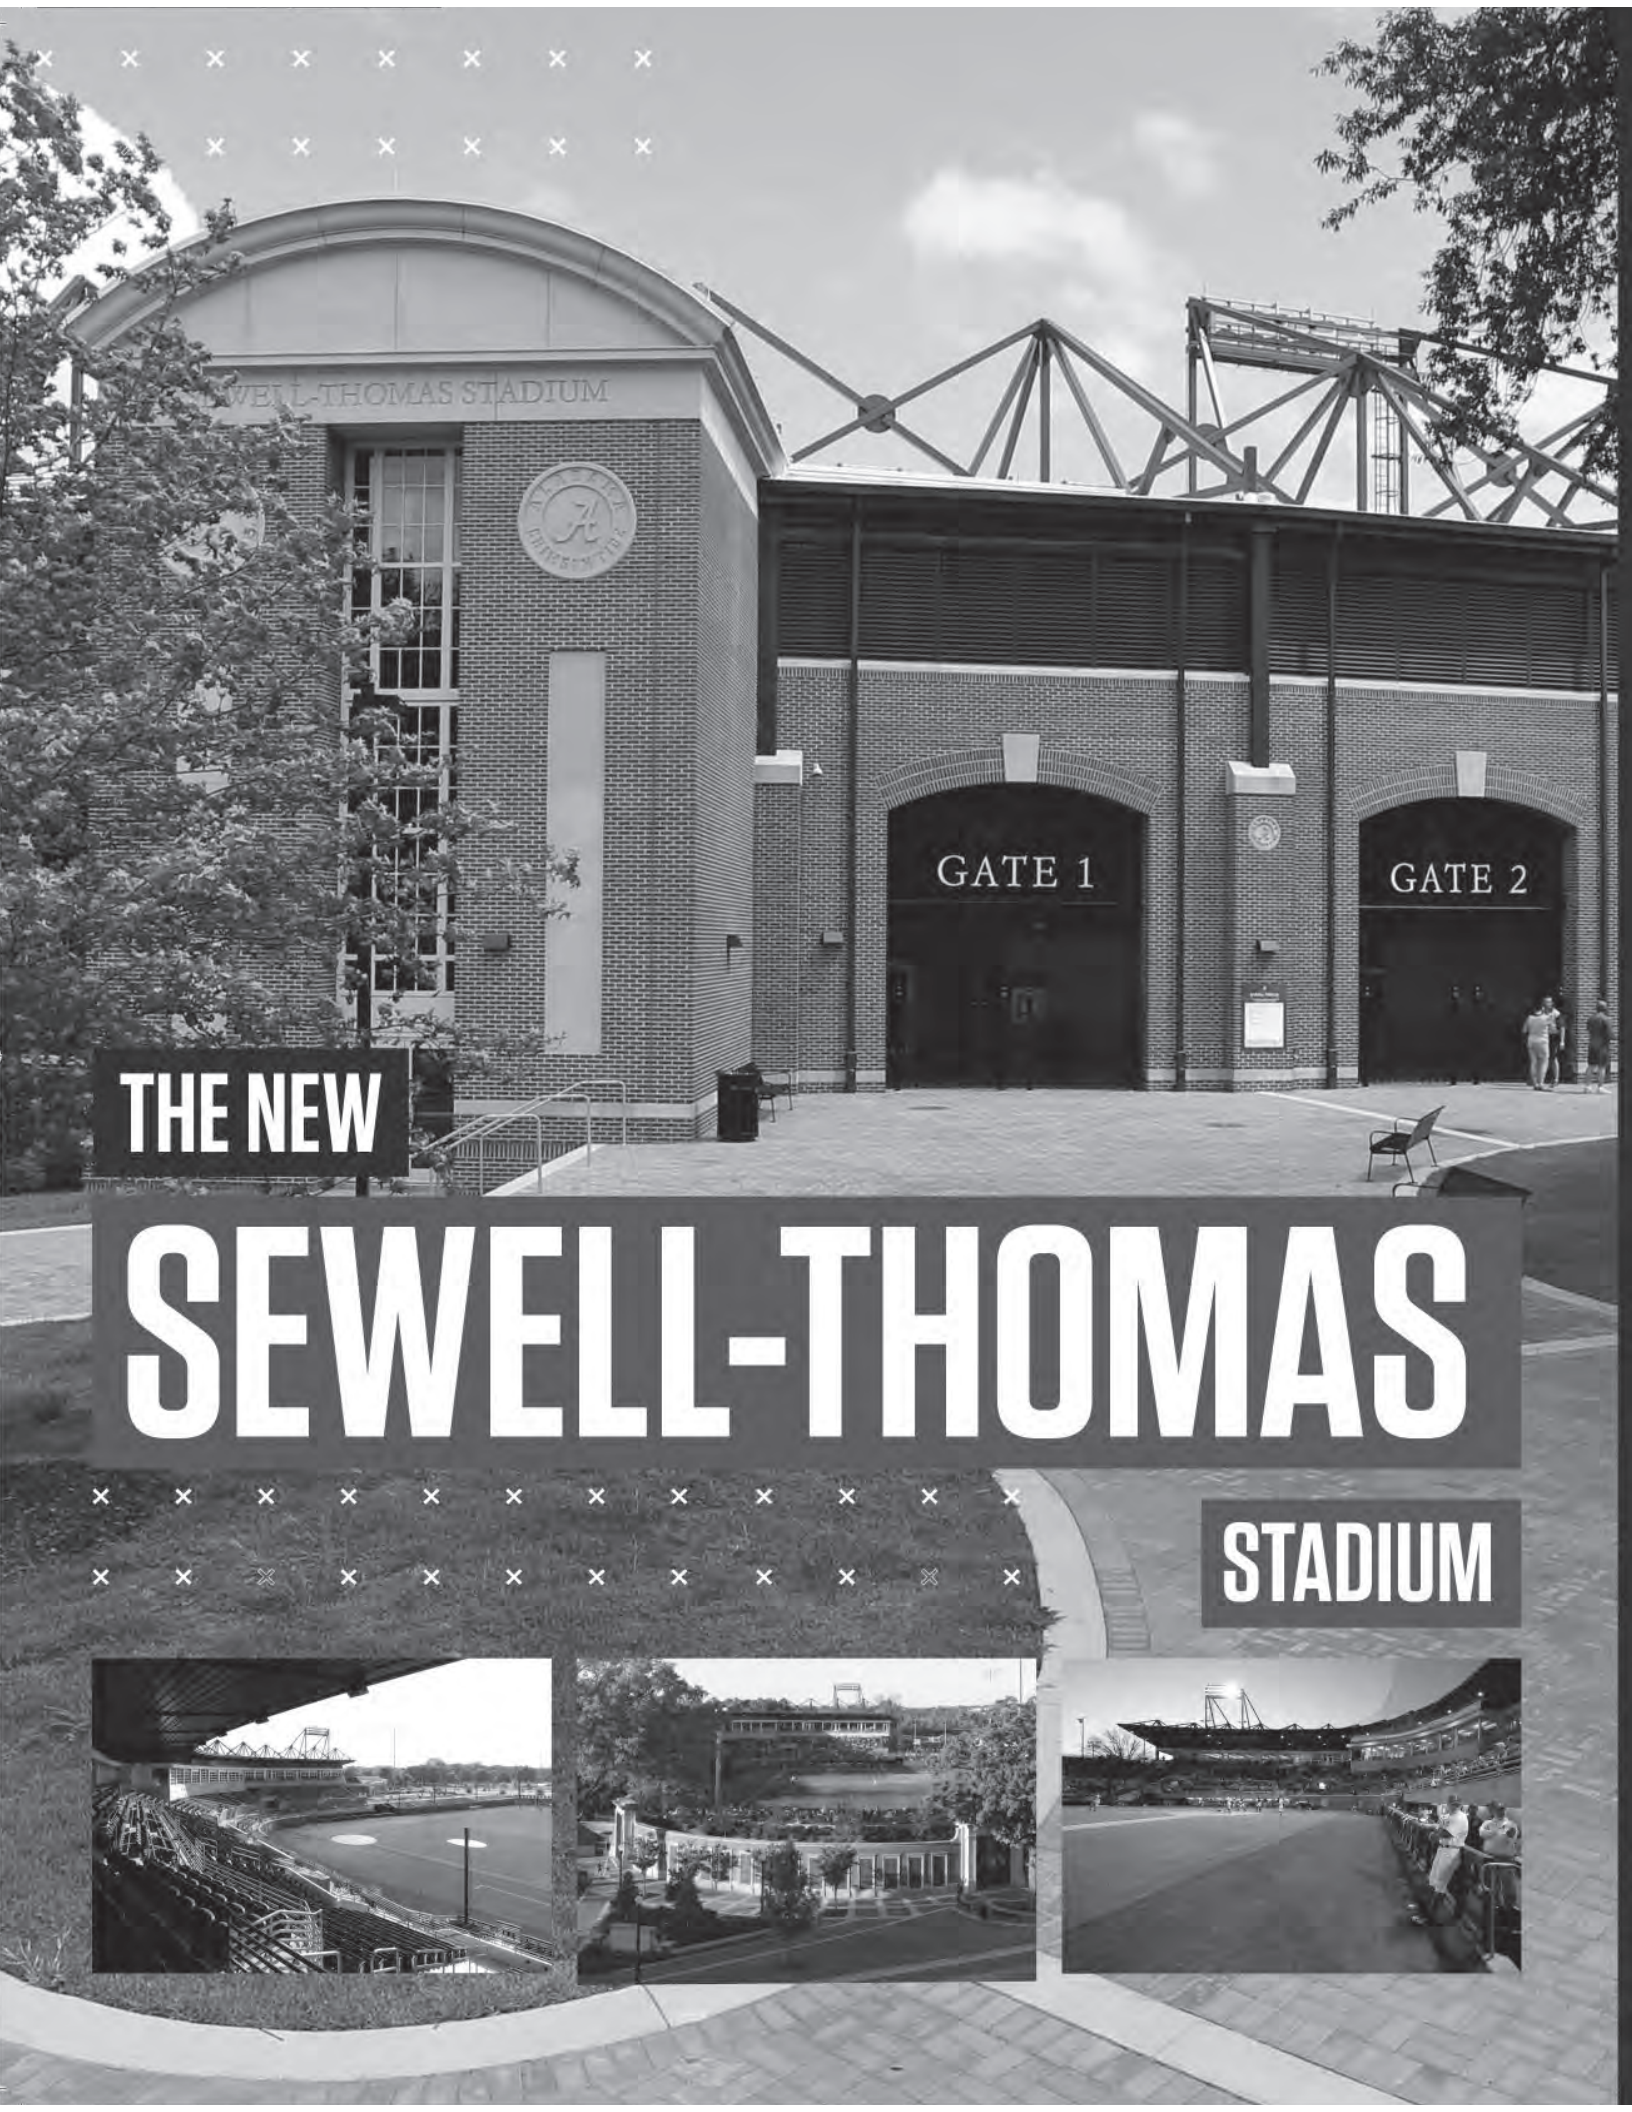

Alabama baseball has produced nine CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 1972, including first-team honorees Jeff Laubenthal (1993), Lance Cormier (right) (2002) and Emeel Salem (2006 & 2007).

The Crimson Tide has produced 13 CoSIDA Academic All-District IV selections since 1993, including two-time honorees Lance Cormier (2001 & 2002), Beau Hearod (left) (2002 & 2003) and Emeel Salem (2006 & 2007).

Emeel Salem is the most decorated student in Alabama baseball history, receiving more than $25,000 in post-graduate scholarships. In addition to the SEC Male Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, Salem received the 2007 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award and was a two-time SEC Baseball Scholar Athlete of the Year (2006 & 2007).

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 2016
OPENING NIGHT AT THE NEW JOE

Sewell-Thomas Stadium was a hit with fans during its inaugural season in 2016, selling out nine times and welcoming 6,000-plus fans on six separate occasions.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium, located slightly off Paul W. Bryant Drive in the Alabama Athletics Complex, has played host to six NCAA Regionals, six SEC playoff series and a pair of exhibition games with the New York Yankees in 1978 and 1984. The Crimson Tide used its home-field advantage to secure a berth in the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999, winning 13 straight postseason home games in one of the most dominant runs in Crimson Tide baseball history.

Alabama has compiled a 1,244-576-2 (.683) all-time record at Sewell-Thomas Stadium since its move to the current site in 1948. The Tide returned home in 2016 after spending the previous season in Hoover while the stadium underwent a complete renovation. Crimson Tide fans flooded the new stadium in its inaugural season with 133,720 total fans coming through the gates for 31 home matchups. The Tide averaged over 4,000 fans for the first time since 2009 and sold out on nine different occasions.

Over the last 22 years, Alabama has owned a significant advantage at home, winning 77 of its 108 SEC series. Since 1995, Alabama has won 41 of 56 home series against SEC Eastern Division teams.

A series loss to No. 3 Florida at the end of the 2010 season snapped a 14-series win streak versus Eastern Division schools that dated back to 2005. Alabama enters the 2019 season having won 35 of its past 50 SEC home series inside Sewell-Thomas Stadium.

In 2009, Alabama earned a home series win over top-ranked Georgia, adding to the Tide's success at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. The Crimson Tide has won seven of its eight series against the nation's top-ranked team since 1985, with four of those series wins coming in Tuscaloosa. Alabama owns home series wins over Miami (Fla.) (1985), LSU (2007), Mississippi State (2006) and Georgia (2009) when those teams were ranked No. 1 in the country.

The Tide baseball team has been a success at the gate as well, drawing over three million fans since the first stadium expansion in 1991. Over the past 27 years, Alabama has attracted 3,139,459 fans in 871 all-time openings in Tuscaloosa. The Tide ranked second nationally in attendance from 1999-2002 and set a school record with 211,331 fans during the 2000 season, when every home game was sold out.

Frank Thomas Field opened on March 26, 1948, as a 2,000-seat facility that attracted many overflow crowds in the 1950s and 1960s under Coach Tilden "Happy" Campbell and Coach Joe Sewell. The inaugural game was played on March 26, 1948, with the Crimson Tide beating the Bradley Braves 5-2 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Pitcher Clarence Flack delivered the first pitch at 2:02 p.m. that afternoon in the Tide's new baseball home. Dick Dill recorded the first hit at Thomas Field and Jack Rutledge swatted the first home run. Flack was the winning pitcher that afternoon for the Tide. Marvin Blemker also pitched and earned what is known today as a save.

Since the inaugural game in 1948, Sewell-Thomas Stadium has seen plenty of changes. The stadium was renamed Sewell-Thomas Field in 1978, honoring former Alabama football and baseball standout and Major League Hall of Famer Joe Sewell. Alabama played the first night game in school history on March 14, 1981, with a 13-8 victory over Western Kentucky.

The ballpark underwent three major renovations prior to 2015, including changes in 1991, 1999 and 2001.

The original grandstand was completed in time for the 1991 season by Wesley Construction of Talladega, Ala.

N.C. Morgan Construction of Tuscaloosa was responsible for a $4-million expansion project, which was completed prior to the 2001 season, extended the grandstand down the right field line.

The players and coaches also benefited from the 2001 renovations. The Crimson Tide moved into its spacious clubhouse in 2001. The expansion also included three indoor batting cages and pitching machines, a meeting room, training room, equipment room and coaches offices.

The renovation and rebuilding to construct what is now known as "The New Joe" began in the fall of 2014 and lasted until January of 2016, completing a $42.5 million project originally envisioned by the late Mal Moore. The project saved only the cement foundation, while a complete overhaul was made to the rest of the facility. Along with the stadium, a state-of-the-art indoor hitting facility was added along the left field line to allow for practice both in the cages and on the mound year-round.

Alabama's new home returned the right field terrace for fans, while adding chairbacks around the entire lower bowl. On the upper concourse, suites along with the .525 Club host Alabama baseball fans. The .525 Club, similar to the Zone at Bryant-Denny Stadium, was built in honor of the most decorated player in Crimson Tide baseball history, David Magadan. Magadan is Alabama's only Golden Spikes Award winner, which is the premiere award given to college baseball's top player. In that 1983 season, Magadan batted .525, an NCAA record that still stands today.

Along with fan amenities, players are now treated to a new lounge, team meeting room and locker room.

The new Sewell-Thomas Stadium has cemented itself as one of the premiere baseball facilities not only in the Southeastern Conference, but across all of college baseball. The University of Alabama's rich athletic tradition began with baseball, and a renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium has once again elevated the program to the forefront of athletics at the Capstone.

HEAD COACH

BRAD BOHANNON

HEAD COACH BRAD BOHANNON

BRAD BOHANNON

Head Coach

Second Year

BERRY COLLEGE, 1998

Brad Bohannon is in the midst of his second season as the head coach of the Crimson Tide baseball program. The 2015 American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America National Assistant Coach of the Year, Bohannon was named head baseball coach at The University of Alabama by Director of Athletics Greg Byrne on June 1, 2017. Bohannon, who became the 32nd head coach in Crimson Tide baseball history, was formally introduced at a press conference on June 5, 2017.

Bohannon immediately made his mark on the Alabama program. The 2018 season saw the Crimson Tide get off to a perfect 9-0 start, with Bohannon matching Wallace Wade (1924) for the second-best start to an Alabama head coaching career. Under his direction, Alabama improved its win total by eight from the previous season, including three more victories in SEC play, finishing with a 27-29 overall record and an 8-22 mark in conference action. The 27 wins were highlighted by six victories over top-25 teams, including a series win over then-No. 7 Kentucky.

Sewell-Thomas Stadium also became a favorable spot for the Tide once again in 2018, as UA closed out its home slate with a 22-13

(.629) mark at The Joe compared to a 14-22 record in 2017. Alabama was rarely out of a game with Bohannon at the helm, with 14 losses coming by two runs or less, including five of the Tide's six losses in the month of May – all against SEC opposition.

Bohannon came to Tuscaloosa with 14 years of Southeastern Conference coaching experience after having served as an assistant at Kentucky from 2004-15 and, most recently, Auburn from 2016-17. Regarded as one of the best recruiters in the nation, he was responsible for signing 13 Wildcat student-athletes that went on to play in the Major Leagues, including 2014 Golden Spikes Award winner A.J. Reed, while his first recruiting class at Auburn was ranked No. 9 by Collegiate Baseball and included six 2017 starters for the Tigers. His recruits at Auburn went on to fill all starting roles on the 2018 team that reached the Gainesville Super Regional, falling one run short of reaching the College World Series.

Dating back to 2008, all of Bohannon's recruiting classes prior to coming to Alabama were ranked in the top 25 with the 2008 class coming in at No. 4, the 2009 class at No. 6, the 2010 class at No. 16, the 2011 class at No. 25, the 2012 class at No. 11, the 2013 class at No. 25, the 2014 class at No. 16, both the 2015 and 2016 classes coming in at No. 9 and the '17 group ranking sixth. His first class at Alabama, the Tide's current freshmen, was ranked No. 23 in the nation by Perfect Game, No. 15 by Baseball America and as high as No. 10 by Collegiate Baseball News, despite just over a year to recruit to UA. During his time in the collegiate ranks, he has signed recruits from 25 different states and Canada, three of which have gone on to be first round picks in the MLB Draft.

Bohannon played a pivotal role in turning around both Kentucky and Auburn within three years on the job. The Wildcats became the first team in SEC history to go from worst to first in only one season, winning 44 games and the program's first league title in 2006, while the Tigers won 12 more games in 2017 than in 2016 and advanced to the NCAA tournament. In addition to improving in the win column, the 2017 squad set the school record for fielding percentage at .975.

While at Kentucky, Bohannon served under two SEC Coach of the Year honorees in John Cohen and Gary Henderson. Along with winning the school's only league title, Bohannon was a part of a trio of record-breaking win seasons, capped off by the 2012 team that won 45 games to set the program mark.

A combined 69 Wildcat student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Baseball draft or signed as a free agent during Bohannon's tenure as recruiting coordinator. He had nine recruits selected in the 2012 draft, which set a new Kentucky record and was second-most in the NCAA. The 2018 MLB Draft saw seven former recruits from Bohannon's time in Lexington chosen to begin their professional careers, four of which went in the top-10 rounds, highlighted by junior right-hander Sean Hjelle, a second-round selection of the San Francisco Giants.

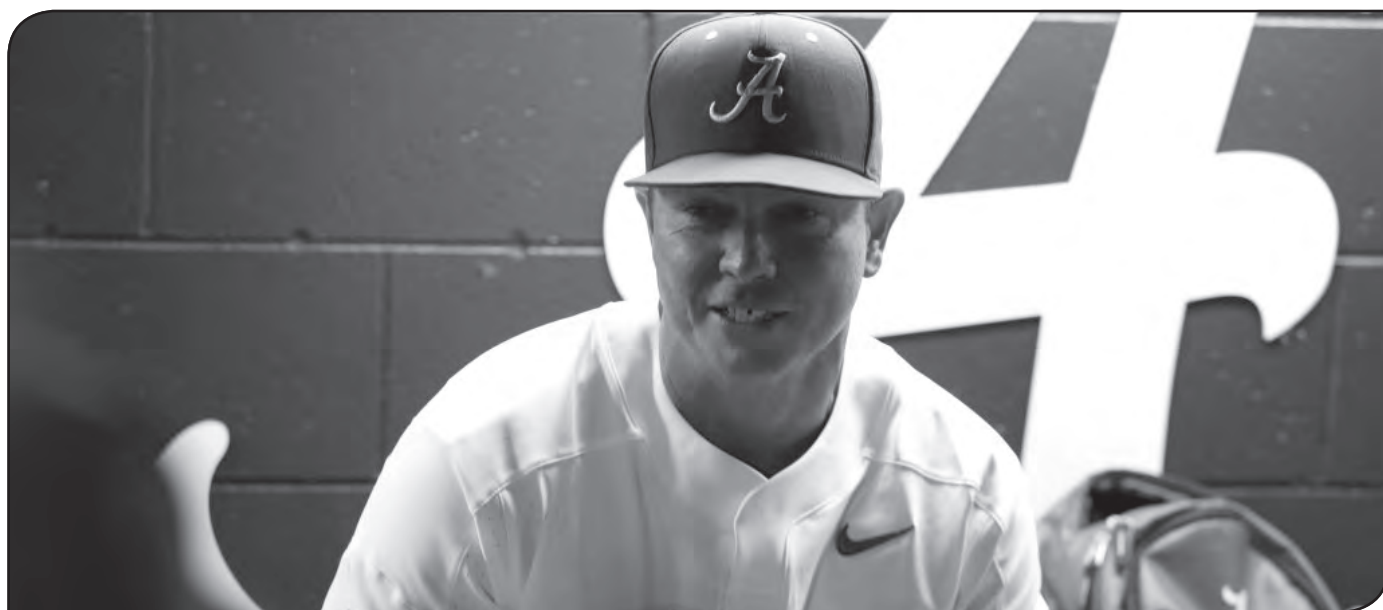

One of Bohannon's most notable recruits was the aforementioned Reed, who was tabbed as the consensus national player of the year in 2014. The 2012 freshman All-American continued to improve each year under Bohannon's watch and went on to lead the NCAA in home runs and slugging percentage as a junior, while leading the SEC in wins by a pitcher.

Prior to his stint at Kentucky, Bohannon worked for two seasons at Wake Forest as an assistant on George Greer's staff. In his two seasons in Winston-Salem, the Demon Deacons advanced to the NCAA tournament twice and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference title in 2001.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Bohannon also spent the summer of 2005 managing the Southern Ohio Copperheads of the Great Lakes Summer Collegiate League.

Bohannon earned an undergraduate degree in finance in 1998 from Berry College in Georgia. He then went on to earn a master's degree in business administration from Wake Forest in 2002. Bohannon began his collegiate career playing at Vanderbilt and Georgia Tech before finishing up at Berry.

A native of Rome, Ga., Bohannon is married to the former Kim Traylor.

Second Year

FLORIDA STATE, 2000

One of the top pitching coaches and recruiters in the assistant coaching ranks of college baseball, Jason Jackson was officially hired to serve as the Crimson Tide's pitching coach on June 13, 2017, and is in his second season in that role in 2019. Jackson was the second addition to Brad Bohannon's Crimson Tide staff and came to Tuscaloosa after spending 16 years as an assistant, including the previous nine as the pitching coach at Florida Atlantic University.

Jackson has built a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the Southeast and is known for his ability to develop talent on the mound. Before his stint in Boca Raton, he was an assistant at South Alabama (2007-08), Mercer University (2003-06) and North Florida Community College (2002). In all of those stops, Jackson served as a pitching coach, recruiting coordinator or both.

The Tide saw significant improvements in Jackson's first season leading the Alabama arms. The staff sported a 4.10 ERA in 2018 and struck out 370 compared to 195 walks allowed. Alabama's ERA dropped by 0.83 from the 2017 campaign while the team's walk total dropped by 65 across 56 contests. In SEC action, Tide pitchers dropped their combined ERA by 0.80 and slashed their walk totals by 61.

Jackson's guidance helped four-year starter Jake Walters return to form in 2018. Walters finished his final year at the Capstone as the team leader in strikeouts at 82, good for 12th in the SEC, and a team-high tying four wins to go with a 3.73 ERA. The senior starter was even better in conference play, maintaining a lowly 2.89 ERA which was fifth-best in the league, and earned SEC Pitcher of the Week honors for his complete game shutout against then-No. 4 Ole Miss in the final start of his Alabama career. Walters went on to be the first member of the Crimson Tide selected in the 2018 MLB Draft, going in the ninth round to the Miami Marlins.

During his nine seasons with the Owls, Jackson helped FAU develop into one of the top baseball programs in the NCAA South-Central region. Jackson joined the FAU staff in 2008 and worked his way to the title of Associate Head Coach by September of 2016. Throughout his nine-year span in Boca Raton, the FAU program captured four conference titles and appeared in four NCAA Regionals, including the 2013 NCAA Chapel Hill Regional, where the Owls defeated top-seeded host North Carolina. On the hill, Jackson coached 16 pitchers that were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, 13 of which were undrafted prior to their time under his tutelage.

A pair of FAU arms that were guided by Jackson saw their names called in the 2018 MLB Draft with Kyle Marman (13th Round) and Jake Miednik (20th Round) each being selected by the Cleveland Indians. Jackson also had 14 pitchers that were chosen in the Major League Baseball Drafts during his time at FAU, including: Alex House (24th Round, Houston Astros) in 2017; David McKay (14th Round, Kansas City Royals), Colyn O'Connell (26th Round, Detroit Tigers) and Robbie Counsel (26th Round, Pittsburgh Pirates) in 2016; Seth McGarry (8th Round, Pittsburgh Pirates), Kyle Miller (19th Round, Chicago Cubs) and Drew Jackson (35th Round, San Francisco Giants) in 2015; Austin Gomber (4th Round, St. Louis Cardinals) in 2014; Michael Sylvestri (29th Round, Washington Nationals) in 2013; R.J. Alvarez (3rd Round, Los Angeles Angels) and Ryan Garton (34th Round, Tampa Bay Rays) in 2012; Paul Davis (17th Round, San Francisco Giants) in 2011; Ryan Bernal (23rd Round, Milwaukee Brewers) and Mike Gipson (31st Round, New York Yankees) in 2010; and Alex Pepe (44th Round, Texas Rangers) in 2009.

The 2017 season under Jackson's watch saw the Owls rank second in ERA and allow the second-fewest earned runs in the league. FAU's pitchers struck out 444 compared to only 131 walks while holding the opposition to a league-low .262 average. The pitching staff was highlighted by Second Team All-Conference USA selection Cameron Ragsdale.

In 2016, the Owls' staff paced Conference USA with a 3.24 ERA, six shutouts and a 1.21 WHIP, while allowing a league-low for walks, runs and doubles en route to winning the C-USA regular-season championship. The FAU pitchers ranked 14th in the nation in both ERA and walks allowed, and 15th in WHIP. The 2015 slate featured the emergence of several pitchers who gained national traction under Jackson's guidance, including one who received all-conference honors.

As the Owls made their transition into Conference USA in 2014, Jackson's pitchers allowed only nine home runs, the fewest in FAU history and the fewest in C-USA that season. The Owls ranked 19th nationally in strikeout-to-walk ratio at 2.57 – a category in which they led the league in four of his last five seasons thanks to Jackson's guidance. The 2013 team featured FAU closer Hugh Adams, as he set the school's season saves record with 18 on the way to recording both the FAU and Sun Belt Conference career saves mark with 31.

In his first three seasons at FAU, Jackson helped guide the Owls to two Sun Belt Conference titles in a three-year span. Jackson tutored starting pitcher Paul Davis and Adams to All-South Central Region selections by the National Baseball Coaches Association of America at the end of the 2011 season.

He spent 2007 and 2008 as an assistant coach at the University of South Alabama. Two of Jackson's pitchers at USA were selected in the 2008 MLB Draft. Under his direction in 2007, Jaguar pitchers struck out 188 more batters than they walked during the previous season before his arrival.

Jackson began his collegiate coaching career as a pitching coach at North Florida Community College in 2002 before moving to Macon, Ga., in 2003 to serve as an assistant coach at Mercer University. Jackson was essential in establishing a number of new school pitching records during his three seasons with the Bears, and was elevated to the program's recruiting coordinator in 2006.

The Crimson Tide's pitching coach earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in physical education in 2000, before going on to obtain a master's degree in sports administration at FSU. A native of Tallahassee, Fla., he and his wife, Katie, have three children, Kinsey, Tyler and Haylee.

ASSISTANT COACH JERRY ZULLI (HITTING)

JERRY ZULLI

Assistant Coach

Second Year

NEW ORLEANS, 2002

Now in his second season with the Crimson Tide, Jerry Zulli was officially announced as Alabama's hitting coach on June 9, 2017. Zulli, who spent the 2017 season at Louisiana Tech, was the first addition to head coach Brad Bohannon's staff and brings a wealth of coaching experience to UA.

Zulli has spent 17 total seasons as an assistant coach, building a reputation as a tireless recruiter and one of the top hitting coaches in college baseball. Prior to his time in Ruston, Zulli was with the Missouri staff for the 2016 campaign and was at South Alabama for four seasons from 2011-15. He began his Division I coaching career at Memphis for seven years prior to USA, spanning 2004-10. Zulli got his start in collegiate coaching at Middle Georgia College from 2002-04.

The Crimson Tide bats saw significant improvements in Zulli's first season as hitting coach. Alabama totaled 156 extra-base hits and contributed 310 runs with 270 walks. UA improved in nearly every offensive category under Zulli's direction, increasing in: extra-base hits (+14), doubles (+14), triples (+2), runs (+30) and walks (+63). In SEC play, the Tide hitters collected nearly half of their extra-base hits for the season with 71 (46 percent), including 45 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs while plating 127 total runs.

Zulli's guidance helped in getting four Alabama players selected in the 2018 MLB Draft. Chandler Taylor (10th Round, Houston Astros) was the first off the board for UA, followed by Cobie Vance (18th Round, Oakland A's), Jett Manning (20th Round, San Francisco Giants) and Chandler Avant (30th Round, New York Mets). Also taken in that 2018 Draft was the 10th overall selection Travis Swaggerty, who Zulli recruited to South Alabama during his time coaching with the Jaguars.

In his lone season at La Tech, Zulli's efforts helped the Bulldogs rank in the top three in nearly every offensive category in Conference USA. The offense recorded a .313 average with 203 RBI and 213 runs scored while slugging .475 and sporting a .413 on-base percentage – all totals that ranked second in the league. Zulli coached four hitters to all-conference honors, including a pair of first-teamers in 2017. Brent Diaz, who was one of the Bulldogs' first team all-conference selections, was also tabbed a Third Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball

News while earning a spot as a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award.

Prior to his time at Tech, he was with Missouri for one season in 2016, running the Tigers' offense while serving as recruiting coordinator, infield coach and third base coach. His time in Columbia was highlighted by his recruiting efforts, where he was responsible for adding seven recruits to the Tigers' recruiting class, including five of which who were selected in the 2016 MLB First-Year Player Draft. In addition to his recruits that were drafted, Zulli also had two of his players from the 2015-16 Missouri roster selected in Ryan Howard (5th Round, San Francisco Giants) and Jake Ring (31st Round, Baltimore Orioles).

Before heading to Columbia, Zulli assembled the 2016 signing class at South Alabama, a collection of talent that helped lead USA to the 2016 Sun Belt regular season co-championship and an NCAA Regional appearance. Three of his four seasons in Mobile featured top-50 recruiting classes, including a 2013 class that ranked 29th by Collegiate Baseball News. That class played a significant role for the 2015 Jaguar squad that won 37 games and the Sun Belt Conference Championship.

During his four seasons at USA, Zulli coached nine hitters to All-Sun Belt Conference honors, one conference player of the year winner, an All-American and one Freshman All-America selection.

His offenses at South Alabama ranked atop the Sun Belt in batting average twice (2012, 2015) and was second in 2013. His teaching made an immediate impact on the Jaguars in his first season, as the offense led the SBC in conference play in seven categories, including: average (.306), hits (321), RBI (184), runs scored (205), total bases (474), and on-base (.389) and slugging percentage (.452).

In his seven seasons at Memphis, Zulli helped the Tigers lead Conference USA in hitting and on-base percentage on three separate occasions, while ranking among the top-five in the league in virtually every hitting metric. He coached eight players to a combined 10 All-Conference USA honors, including Chad Zurcher, who was tabbed the 2011 C-USA Player of the Year and a Third Team All-American after leading the NCAA in average and on-base percentage. He also coached 12 players who were selected in the MLB Draft, including five who were taken in the 2011 draft.

His first season at Memphis saw the Tigers increase their win total by 19 games from the year prior, the second-best turnaround in NCAA history at the time, while the offense finished ranked 30th nationally. His efforts continued to help the Tigers progress, eventually leading Memphis to 36 wins and a postseason berth in 2007 – the program's first NCAA Regional appearance in 13 years.

Zulli began his collegiate coaching career as the recruiting coordinator at Middle Georgia College from 2002-04. The Warriors went 130-51 in his three seasons, including two JUCO World Series appearances in 2002 and 2004. His 2002 team finished sixth nationally, while the 2004 squad wrapped up the season fourth in the national polls.

As a player, Zulli began his career at Middle Georgia College for two seasons where he won the Terry Daniels Award and helped MGC to a Region XVII Championship in 1999. He then transferred to the University of New Orleans for his final two years where he lettered each season for the Privateers.

Zulli earned his bachelor's degree from UNO in sports management in 2002. He is married to the former Kristen Bell. The couple has one daughter, Zoe Madelyn, and a son, Dominic Anthony.

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH MATT REIDA

MATT
REIDA

Vol. Assistant Coach

First Year

KENTUCKY, 2014

University of Alabama head coach Brad Bohannon officially announced the addition of Matt Reida on Tuesday, Sept. 4, 2018. Reida, who spent last season at Xavier, joins the Crimson Tide as a volunteer assistant coach.

"I've known Matt since he was 16, and I'm very confident that the grit and competitiveness that he's shown on the field as a player will translate over into his coaching career," said Bohannon. "His work ethic and knowledge for the game will be a great addition to our staff."

Reida comes to Tuscaloosa after spending last year at Xavier, serving as an assistant coach for the Musketeers while also holding the title of recruiting coordinator. He worked primarily with the Xavier hitters while also focusing on his recruiting duties. Under his tutelage, the Musketeers set the school record for home runs with 68, a total that led the Big East and was 21 homers better than second-place St. John's.

Prior to his time in Cincinnati, Reida completed two seasons at Indiana University from 2016-17. At IU, Reida focused on the Hoosiers' infielders, hitters and baserunners. During his first season in Bloomington, the Indiana defenders posted a school-record .975 fielding percentage. The defense was highlighted by Tony Butler, who earned ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove recognition after an errorless season at second base.

Reida joined Indiana following time as the director of player development and recruiting for Cagerat Baseball in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The organization worked with prep baseball players in the Midwest region, assisting them in the process of obtaining a college scholarship and eventually playing professionally. Reida's responsibilities included athlete and camp recruitment, managing player development, organizing team travel and hiring coaches and camp staff.

A former collegiate player at Kentucky, Reida was a member of the Wildcat baseball team from 2011-14, where he was coached by Bohannon. The former infielder made 199 career starts at shortstop for UK, tying him for fifth all-time in program history. He ended his career in Lexington with 214 games of action, placing him fourth all-time at UK. A standout in the classroom, Reida was selected to the SEC Academic Honor Roll on three different occasions from 2012-14.

Following his time at UK, Reida spent time professionally with the Tampa Bay Rays organization in 2014.

Reida graduated from Kentucky with a degree in communications in 2014, graduating Magna Cum Laude with a 3.69 grade point average. He is a native of Kokomo, Ind.

JACK HOEHL

Dir. of Baseball Ops.

Second Year

AUBURN, 2012

Jack Hoehl enters his second season as the Crimson Tide's Director of Baseball Operations after joining the staff in July of 2017. Hoehl came to Alabama from the University of Kentucky, where he spent four seasons in the same position.

In his first year with the Wildcats in 2014, Kentucky reached an NCAA Regional. The 2015 campaign saw UK notch a 30-win season, including 14 wins in SEC play. Kentucky rallied for another 30-win season in 2016 on the way to an SEC Tournament appearance. Hoehl coordinated all operations for the Wildcats' postseason run in 2017, when Kentucky finished as a Super Regional participant.

Hoehl arrived in Lexington from Auburn University, where he spent four years as the head student manager for the baseball program, before serving as an event management assistant for the 2012-13 school year. As the event management assistant, Hoehl worked Auburn events for football, men's basketball, baseball, equestrian, track and field, cross country and women's golf.

In his final year with the Tigers in 2013, Hoehl assisted with the planning and execution of the 2013 inaugural SEC Equestrian Championship and the 2013 NCAA Women's Golf Regional.

While serving as head student manager for the Tigers during his undergraduate years, Hoehl oversaw all responsibilities for team managers, including scheduling, field preparation, training and game day coordination. He also operated the video analysis system, compiled innovative statistical measurements and assisted the recruiting coordinator in game day preparations and prospect visits. He also was charged with creating and producing motivational and promotional videos for the program while spending the offseason supervising the AU summer baseball camps.

The Issaquah, Wash., native has also served as the coordinator of operations for the BB&T Atlanta Open (men's tennis) and as an operations intern with the Atlanta Tennis Championships.

Hoehl graduated from Auburn in December of 2012 with a degree in supply chain management.

SEAN STRYKER

Athletic Trainer

Second Year

PENN STATE, 2012

Sean Stryker joined the Alabama baseball program in the fall of 2017 and enters his second season with the Crimson Tide after spending two seasons at Auburn from 2016-17.

Stryker's stint at Auburn spanned two seasons under head coach Butch Thompson. During his time on the Plains, the Tigers went from 8-22 in conference and 23-33 overall in 2016 to 37-26 mark, including a 16-14 SEC record on the way to an NCAA Regional appearance in 2017. Stryker's time in Auburn was highlighted by the rehabilitation of third-round pick Keegan Thompson, who came back from Tommy John surgery in 2015 to have a career year in 2017, going 7-4 with a 2.41 ERA across 15 starts as the ace of the Tigers' pitching staff.

Prior to his time at AU, Stryker spent the 2015 season working with head coach Brad Bohannon, then an assistant, at Kentucky as the baseball program's head athletic trainer. During his time in Lexington, Stryker handled all daily evaluation, coordination, implementation, treatment and rehabilitation for the Wildcats' baseball team.

The Oak Ridge, N.J., native began his post-graduate career with the Baltimore Orioles in 2013 and 2014 as a staff athletic trainer. While with the Orioles, Stryker assisted the head and assistant athletic trainers with all duties related to daily prevention, evaluation and treatment of injuries.

Stryker earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Penn State in 2012. He then went on to earn a master's degree in sports medicine from Delaware in 2014. While at Delaware, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer, working primarily with the baseball program.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association and the Southeast Atlantic Trainers' Association, Stryker is married to the former Samantha Maron of Wharton, N.J. The couple was married in July of 2016.

BRETT
PRICE

Strength & Conditioning

First Year

TROY, 2013

Brett Price enters his first season with the Alabama baseball program after the spending the previous two years at Auburn from 2016-18. He will serve as the Crimson Tide's strength and conditioning coach, bringing his extensive background of training and developing baseball players to the Alabama program.

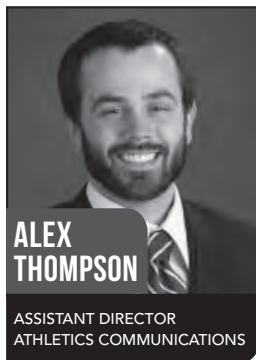

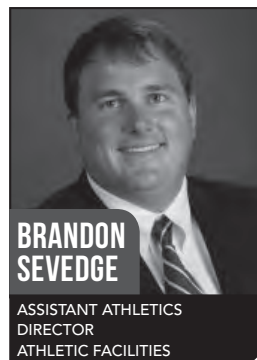

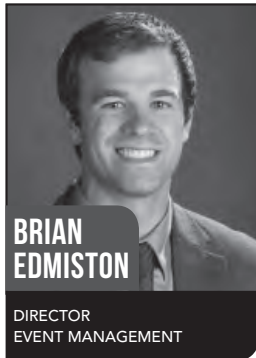

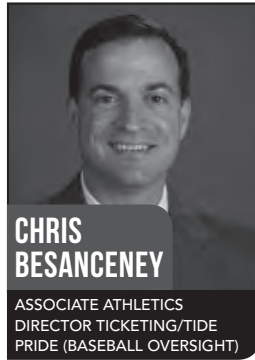

Prior to his time at Auburn, Price worked for Rapid Sports Performance in Woodstock, Ga. In addition, he worked at Cressey Sports Performance in Jupiter, Fla. At both stops, Price was responsible for developing and implementing training programs for baseball players ranging from the high school to the major league level. Price has also worked as a camp instructor with New Balance Area Code baseball camps across the country. His primary responsibilities included testing and instruction of high school baseball student-athletes on the proper ways to train.

He spent two seasons from 2014-15 as the strength and conditioning coach for Troy baseball and softball in the Sun Belt Conference. During his time with the Trojans, he utilized his skills to put training regiments together that were tailored specifically to both sports. Price also spent time as a strength and conditioning intern with Troy athletics in 2013, as well as two seasons as video coordinator with Troy baseball from 2011-13.

A native of Prattville, Ala., Price holds both of his degrees from Troy University. He graduated with his bachelor's in sport fitness management/business in 2013 and his master's in sport and fitness management/exercise science in 2015. He played two seasons of collegiate baseball at Lawson State Community College in Birmingham, Ala., from 2010-11.

Price is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He is married to the former Brooke Spinks of Tifton, Ga. The two were married in November of 2016.

SEASON NOTES

- Alabama finished the 2018 season with a 27-29 overall mark and an 8-22 record in Southeastern Conference play. The Crimson Tide finished in 14th place in the final SEC regular-season standings.
- Head coach Brad Bohannon guided the Crimson Tide in his first season as a collegiate head coach. The 32nd head coach in the program's history, Bohannon improved the Tide's overall record by eight wins, including three more in conference play compared to 2017.
- The Crimson Tide got off to a hot start, finishing the month of February a perfect 9-0. The 9-0 start to the season is the best start by an Alabama team since 2002 when Jim Wells' squad started 10-0.
- Bohannon's 9-0 start as the head man at UA matched Wallace Wade (1924) for the second-best start to an Alabama head coaching career. The all-time record for wins to start a head coaching stint with the Crimson Tide is Kid Peebles' perfect 10-0 season in 1897; Peebles only coached the Tide for one season.
- UA hung around in nearly every loss, taking 14 losses by two runs or less, including five of the Tide's six losses in the month of May - all against Southeastern Conference opposition.
- Alabama finished with six wins against top-25 teams in 2018, first with a 3-0 win over then-No. 15 Southern Miss. The Tide followed that up with a series victory over then-No. 7 Kentucky and a series win in Columbia at then-No. 22 Missouri. The Crimson Tide's final top-25 win came against eventual SEC Western Division Champion and SEC Tournament Champion, Ole Miss, who was ranked fourth in the nation at that time.
- The Crimson Tide's pitching staff sported a 4.10 ERA (224 ER/491.1 IP) in 2018, good for seventh in the SEC ranks during the regular season. Alabama arms struck out 370 compared to 195 walks and limited opposing hitters to a .267 average.
- On offense, Alabama finished with a .256 (483-1,889) average and totaled 156 extra-base hits (104 doubles, eight triples, 44 home runs). The Tide hitters contributed 310 runs and walked 270 times.
- Defensively, the Tide fielded at a .969 rate, making 65 total errors, 42 of which came against SEC competition.

A CLOSER LOOK

- The 2018 season saw Alabama make many improvements from the 2017 campaign.
- In 2018, the Tide finished 6-9-3 in its series, bettering last year's series mark of 5-11-0 in series.
- Sewell-Thomas Stadium once again became a favorable spot for Alabama. In 2017, the Tide was a lowly 14-22 (.388) at home, but this year's team moved back into the positive. The 2018 installment of the Tide went 22-13 at The Joe, good for a .629 mark at home.
- Alabama saw positive strides from its pitchers and hitters in 2018.

- The Crimson Tide's pitching staff sported a 4.10 ERA, dropping by 0.83 from the season prior while the team's walk total was 65 fewer than the 2017 staff.
- In conference play, Alabama pitchers maintained a 4.96 ERA (145 ER/263.0 IP) and struck out 178 compared to 116 walks. The 2018 Tide dropped its ERA by .80 and slashed its walk totals by 61 in SEC action.
- On offense, UA improved in nearly every category, including: extra-base hits (+14), doubles (+14), triples (+2), runs (+30), walks (+63) and stolen bases (+7).
- Against SEC foes, the Crimson Tide batted .237 (241-1,019) and collected nearly half of its extra-base hits with 71 (46 percent). The bats produced 45 doubles, four triples and 22 home runs and plated 127 runs. The Tide also walked 131 times and stole 20 of its 34 bases against league opponents. UA's walk totals rose by 26 from the 2017 squad while the '18 Tide doubled its stolen base numbers from the season prior.
- Defensively, the Tide committed 65 errors resulting in 47 unearned runs, many that proved costly by season's end.
- In nine games, Alabama miscues resulted in one or more unearned runs that secured the win for the opposition. On five occasions, UA would have been even with its opponent had they not committed an error and in four games the Tide's errors cost a potential win. Eight of the contests affected by a Tide mistake came in SEC play.
- Alabama's play at catcher improved significantly, as well. In 2017, Tide backstops allowed 21 passed balls and held runners to a .757 stolen base percentage, throwing out 18 while allowing 56 stolen bases. The 2018 Crimson Tide catchers recorded only six passed balls for a decrease of 15. On the basepaths, UA's catchers allowed runners a .706 stolen base percentage with 15 caught stealings and 36 stolen bases.

BRAD BOHANNON CONCLUDES FIRST SEASON WITH THE TIDE

- Head coach Brad Bohannon completed his first season at the helm of the Crimson Tide baseball program after being named the 32nd head coach in Alabama baseball history on June 1, 2017.
- Bohannon brought 14 years of Southeastern Conference coaching experience to Alabama after having served as an assistant at Kentucky from 2004-15 and at Auburn from 2016-17.
- The first-year head coach is known for his recruiting abilities, earning the distinction of the American Baseball Coaches Association and Baseball America National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015.
- The SEC's 2018 postseason All-Conference team featured two players that were formerly Bohannon recruits in first-team selection Kole Cottam (Kentucky) along with second-teamer Will Holland (Auburn). The league's All-Freshman Team was spotted with four recruits that signed under Bohannon, including Tanner Burns, Cody Greenhill, Edouard Julien and Steven Williams - all from Auburn. Julien was also selected to the SEC

All-Tournament Team following his impressive performance in Hoover.

- Bohannon's 2018 squad got off to a hot start, winning nine consecutive games to begin the season. The 9-0 start is the best by an Alabama team since 2002 when Jim Wells' squad started 10-0.

- The 9-0 start for the first-year head coach matches Wallace Wade (1924) for the second-best start to a head coaching career at Alabama. The all-time record for wins to start a head coaching stint with the Crimson Tide is Kid Peeples' perfect 10-0 season in 1897; Peeples only coached for one year.

- Bohannon's first team at UA claimed series victories over two top-25 teams in SEC play, including one on the road. The Tide also reclaimed a home field advantage under Bohannon, winning 22 of 35 games for a .629 winning percentage. That record improved significantly from the 2017 squad's 14-22 (.388) mark at The Joe.

- Despite a tough season, the Crimson Tide never quit. Fourteen of the 29 total losses came by two runs or less, including five of the Tide's six losses in May. Over that stretch, the Crimson Tide squared off with Mississippi State at home followed by a roadtrip to Alex Box Stadium to take on LSU in one of the toughest environments in college baseball. Alabama closed out its regular season against eventual SEC Western Division and Tournament Champion Ole Miss. The Tide claimed one win against the Rebels and fell in the other two matchups by a combined three runs.

THE NEW JOE CONTINUES TO SEE BIG NUMBERS

- Alabama's recently renovated facility, Sewell-Thomas Stadium, enjoyed a third popular season after re-opening at the start of the 2016 campaign.

- In 2018, The Joe hosted 35 home games with 32 ticket dates recorded (three doubleheaders). A total of 111,986 Crimson Tide fans came through the gates this season for an average of 3,200 per game. The Tide's total attendance ranked 15th in the nation while the average attendance total was 20th nationally.

- Sewell-Thomas Stadium sold out on four occasions to bring the three-year sellout total to 15. Alabama's first sellout came Friday, April 20, as the Crimson Tide hosted then-No. 25 Auburn on A-Day weekend. A second sellout followed on Saturday evening as part of a doubleheader with the Tigers. The Joe then sold out two more times, coming May 5-6 against Mississippi State.

TIDE SQUARED OFF WITH TEAMS FROM 10 CONFERENCES IN 2018

- In addition to facing off with Southeastern Conference opponents, Alabama met with teams from nine different conferences in 2018, totaling 10 in all.

- The Tide faced off with its lone Missouri Valley opponent, sweeping Valparaiso in a weekend series to open the 2018 season. Alabama also hosted Washington State of the Pac-12 from Feb. 23-24, resulting in a three-game sweep for the Tide. The Crimson Tide then took two-of-three games from WAC representative and eventual conference champion New Mexico State from March 9-10 to close out its slate with WAC opponents.

- UA wrapped up its pairings with Conference USA opponents after defeating UAB 12-3 on April 10. The Tide finished 3-1 against C-USA in 2018, defeating Middle Tennessee (Feb. 20), Southern Miss (March 7) and then UAB. Alabama's lone loss came at UAB on March 20.

- Alabama also hosted Southern Conference and SWAC opponents this season. The Tide fell to Samford on April 17 to make it a 1-1 split with the Bulldogs, the lone SoCon opponent for UA in 2018. Alabama then defeated Alcorn State one night later, making it a perfect 4-0 mark for the Tide against SWAC teams, with UA outscoring its four opponents by a 43-1 margin.

- The Crimson Tide defeated Troy, 4-3, in the single matchup between the two in-state schools on April 24. The matchup with the Trojans was the only Sun Belt pairing for the Crimson Tide this season.

- UA's non-conference schedule wrapped up when the Tide defeated Jacksonville State, 9-8, in Tuscaloosa.

- Alabama holds the winning advantage against the current member teams of nine of the 10 conferences with the Big 12 owning a 16-12 mark against the Crimson Tide. The Tide's series with New Mexico State of the Western Athletic Conference was the first time UA has met with a current member of the WAC in program history, with UA going 2-1 for a .667 winning percentage against the conference.

- The Crimson Tide's highest winning percentage comes against the SWAC, with UA maintaining an 84-6 mark for a .933 winning percentage. Second on the list is the SoCon, where the Tide holds a .841 winning percentage thanks to a 121-22-2 record against the league's current teams.

- Outside of the SEC, Alabama has faced off with Conference USA the most of the other nine conferences. The Tide has played 258 games against the current C-USA representatives and owns a 180-78 (.698) mark against those teams.

2018 REVIEW

TOUGH SLATE IN 2018

- Alabama wrapped up the 2018 season having played 32 of its 56 games against teams that made the postseason. Those contests were split between 12 separate opponents.
- Seven of the Tide's 10 SEC foes advanced to the postseason, including the final six conference series to close out the season.
- Outside of its conference opponents, the Tide had three-game series at Oklahoma and against New Mexico State. Alabama also squared off against Samford for a pair of games while adding single contests against Southern Miss and Troy.
- By season's end, three of the Tide's opponents had made a Super Regional appearance with all three of those teams advancing to Omaha for the College World Series.

GRADUATING SUCCESS

- Alabama baseball's 2018 roster featured six players who participated in 2018 with their degree already in hand. Tyler Adams, Hunter Alexander, Keith Holcombe and Connor Short were all enrolled in graduate programs at The University of Alabama, while seniors Cody Henry and Jake Walters each walked on Saturday, May 5, in the University's graduation ceremonies after earning their degrees at the conclusion of the Spring semester.
- Adams earned his undergraduate degree in human performance exercise science in August of 2017 before entering grad school to pursue his master's in the same school with an emphasis in exercise science. The senior has been named to the SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll on three occasions (2015-17) and finished his undergraduate coursework with a 3.35 GPA.
- Alexander, currently in pursuit of his master's in sports business management, earned his undergraduate degree in consumer science in December of 2017. He was named the 2017 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll in his first season with the Crimson Tide and completed his undergrad studies with a 3.27 cumulative GPA.
- Holcombe, who was a dual-sport athlete, completed his undergraduate work in human performance exercise science in December of 2017, graduating cum laude of his class. Now enrolled in graduate courses towards a master's in sports management, Holcombe has twice been named to the SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll for baseball in 2016 and 2017. As a member of the football program, the Tuscaloosa native was selected to SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll three times (2015-17) along with earning CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition in both 2016 and 2017 for his efforts in the classroom.
- Short graduated in May of 2017 with his degree in management and is currently pursuing a master's in sports business management - the same graduate program as Alexander. The Hoover product was selected to both the 2016 and 2017 SEC Spring Academic Honor Rolls during his three seasons with the Crimson Tide and currently holds a perfect 4.0 in grad school.
- Henry finished his undergraduate studies with a Bachelor of Science in Human Environmental Sciences with a consumer sciences major. Walters completed his undergrad with a Bachelor of Science in Education with a major in human performance exercise science.

STANDOUT OPENING WEEKEND FOR ALABAMA vs. VALPARAISO

- Alabama opened the season a perfect 3-0 after sweeping Valparaiso to start the Brad Bohannon era.
- Across the first three games of 2018, the Crimson Tide accumulated 41 hits, 16 of which went for extra bases, and added 34 runs on the way to the series sweep. The 41 hits were the most across a three-game stretch by the Crimson Tide since May 8-10, 2015, when UA totaled 43 hits in the weekend sweep of Auburn on the Plains. The 16 extra-base hits were the most for a Tide offense spanning a three-game stretch since March 18-21, 2014, when the Tide also had 16 in two games vs. Alcorn State and the series-opener with Arkansas.
- The bullpen played a crucial role during the series sweep, tossing 11.1 scoreless innings of work after giving up one run in the first relief inning of the year. The relievers collected two of the Tide's three wins and collected one save in the process.
- Friday featured a 16-2 win in the series opener. The Crimson Tide used 17 hits to score 16 runs with each of the starters scoring at least one run and eight of the nine starters collecting at least one hit.
- Alabama's 16 runs were its most in a season-opening game since 1958 when UA took down Tulane, 20-1, at Tulane on March 28, and the run total was also the highest for the Tide in a home opener since 1968 when UA defeated Livingston on March 18 by a score of 17-2.

- The 16 runs under the direction of Bohannon were the third most in a head coaching debut in program history and the most since Joseph Black's 1898 team defeated Massey's Business College, 20-3.

FEBRUARY WAS GOOD FOR THE TIDE OFFENSE

- Alabama's offense was hot to start the season in the month of February.
- Through nine games in the first month, the Crimson Tide ranked third in the SEC with a team batting average of .344 (112-326). The Tide's 112 hits were also third in the conference during February with UA collecting seven double-digit hit outings in the month, including the final five consecutive games heading to March.
- Alabama ranked second in RBI with 86 and was third in the SEC in runs scored at 91 for February.
- The Tide bats produced 35 extra-base hits in month No. 1, with 24 doubles, three triples and eight home runs. The 24 doubles were fourth-best in the conference, while UA's 166 total bases were good for fifth among league teams.
- UA also drew 57 walks in its nine games played, part of its league-leading .467 on-base percentage. The 57 free passes was good for third in the SEC. Alabama was also hit by a league-high 24 pitches over the month-long stretch.
- The Tide offense was led by junior Keith Holcombe, with the third-year outfielder producing a league-high .679 on-base percentage. Holcombe's .625 (15-24) batting average was tops in the conference

VANCE'S BIG SECOND HALF

- Junior Cobie Vance improved his numbers as the season wore on, catching fire in the second half of his junior campaign.
- The Tide's third baseman finished his first 28 games of the 2018 season batting .284 (31-109) but carried a .302 (35-116) mark over the final 28 contests.
- Vance's power numbers increased over the last 28 matchups. The first half of the season saw the junior contribute four doubles, a home run and 12 RBI. In the final stretch, Vance tallied seven doubles, a triple and five home runs to help him rank second overall on the team in homers with six. He also surpassed his RBI total with 16 in his last 28 games compared to 12 over the first 28.
- In the 28-game stretch, he recorded at least one hit 19 times and totaled 12 multi-hit efforts while reaching base safely in 23 of his 28 starts.
- A big part of his late success was the Tide's 18-game April slate that saw Vance lead UA in average (.347), hits (25), home runs (3), stolen bases (4) slugging (.569) and on-base percentage (.407). He also contributed eight RBI, seven runs and eight walks during April.
- Vance really turned it on in his last 16 contests, totaling 19 hits with four doubles, four home runs, 12 RBI, 15 runs scored and 10 walks. His four home runs and 15 runs scored during that time led the team while his 19 hits tied for the team lead. The third baseman also contributed RBI and walk totals that were good for second in the Tide's final 16 outings.
- The junior added a season-long seven-game hitting streak over the final 16 games and contributed seven multi-hit outings. Vance provided at least one run in 11 of those contests and added at least one RBI in half of the 16 games..
- Overall, Vance finished as the only member of the Crimson Tide to start all 56 games of the 2018 slate. During the 2018 campaign, he led the Tide in hits (66), runs (43) and total bases (97) while tying for the team lead in stolen bases with seven.

PRAYTOR TURNED IT ON LATE

- After a slow start, freshman Sam Praytor put together a strong 21-game stretch to close out his first season with the Tide.
- In the first 25 games (22 starts) of his collegiate career, Praytor batted .257 (19-74) with two doubles, six RBI, 12 runs and 10 walks. During his last 21 games (all starts), the Tide backstop batted .301 (22-73) with four doubles, three home runs, 10 RBI and 11 runs scored with 15 walks.
- The final 21-game stretch improved his batting average by .22 to move him into fourth overall on the team at .279. His .278 average in SEC play ranked third on the squad.
- Across the Tide's final 21 contests that he played in, Praytor reached base safely in every game but one and led the Tide in hits (22), slugging percentage (.479) and walks (15). He ranked second on the team in average (.301) during that stretch. The freshman recorded at least one hit in 13 of those games, including six multi-hit efforts.

HOLCOMBE HEATED UP IN HIS FINAL 15 GAMES

- Junior Keith Holcombe contributed in a big way over the last 15 games of the 2018 campaign.
- The starting left fielder suffered an injury at Texas A&M that kept him out of the final two games of the weekend in College Station and the Alcorn State matchup. Holcombe returned for the Auburn series and took two games to return to form but was hot the rest of the way.
- In Holcombe's 15-game stretch that started in game two of the doubleheader with AU, he maintained a team-leading .346 (19-55) average. Over that time, he led the Tide in hits and totaled at least one hit in 12 of the 15 contests, including four multi-hit efforts.
- During the hot streak to close out his junior campaign, Holcombe registered an eight-game hitting streak overall as well as an eight-game streak in SEC play.
- Holcombe also led the Tide in RBI in that 15-game period, collecting one or more RBI in nine of the 15 games, including seven of the final nine SEC contests. He also added five outings of two or more RBI in that stretch.
- The Tuscaloosa native reached base safely in all 15 games and sported a .438 on-base percentage.

JAKE WALTERS - SEC PITCHER OF THE WEEK (MAY 21)

- Alabama senior starter Jake Walters was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week, the league office announced on May 21. The weekly award was the first of Walters' career.
- Walters' standout effort helped the Crimson Tide take down the fourth-ranked Ole Miss Rebels, 3-0, in game two of the series to close out the 2018 campaign.
- The senior starter was outstanding in his final start as a member of the Crimson Tide. Walters limited the high-powered Ole Miss offense to only four hits. He threw his first career complete game shutout and the Tide's first since 2014, walking two and striking out seven across a career-high 35 batters faced.
- The Friday start on Alabama's Senior Night was the 52nd of Walters' career, tying him for the UA career mark for starts by a pitcher. His seven strikeouts moved his four-year total to 292 to rank him third all-time at the Capstone, while his 295.0 total innings and 1,292 batter faced are each fourth-best in Alabama records for their respective categories.
- Walters' award was Alabama's lone weekly honor in the 2018 season and the first since Chandler Taylor was selected as SEC Player of the Week on May 8 of 2017.

FIVE ALABAMA PLAYERS DRAFTED TO MLB

- Alabama had five players selected in the 2018 MLB First-Year Player Draft from June 4-6.
- The five selections marked the 40th consecutive season that the Crimson Tide had at least one player taken in the draft.
- In total, Alabama has produced 153 all-time draft picks (143 players) since the event's inception in 1966 and has had at least one player selected in 47 of the 53 MLB drafts overall.
- Also taken in the draft were six Alabama signees. Going first was outfield commit Patrick "P.J." Hilson, who was selected in round six by the San Francisco Giants on day two. Five more signees went on day three, with infielder Bryan Lavastida going to the Cleveland Indians in the 15th round. A trio of pitchers were next to come off the board, with Dylan Smith selected by the San Diego Padres (18th), Tyler Ras by the Chicago Cubs (33rd) and Will Freeman (36th), also to the Padres. Catcher commit Brett Auerbach rounded out the signees drafted, going to the Colorado Rockies (40th).
- The next page features a list of the Crimson Tide players selected in the 2018 MLB First-Year Player Draft:

Jake Walters (9th Round | 267 Overall | Miami Marlins) - The Crimson Tide's Saturday starter in his final season, Walters made 14 starts during the 2018 campaign and finished tied for the team lead in wins with four, including one complete game shutout. His complete game shutout came against Ole Miss in the final start of his career, where he held the then fourth-ranked Rebels to only four hits while recording seven strikeouts to earn SEC Pitcher of the Week honors. Walters led the team in strikeouts with 82, while ranking 12th in the conference in that category in 2018. He sported a team-low 2.89 ERA (20 ER/62.1 IP) in conference play, which placed him fifth among SEC pitchers.

Walters finished with an 18-18 career record and a 3.42 ERA (112 ER/295.0 IP) across 58 appearances - 52 starts - in his four seasons at UA. His 52 career starts ties for first in the Alabama career annals, while he finished his career ranked third in strikeouts with 292. The right-hander totaled 295.0 innings at the Capstone to sit at fourth on the all-time innings pitched list, while facing 1,292 batters across that span - a total that also ranks fourth. Across his four seasons as a starter, he did not allow more than three walks in 40 of his 52 outings and struck out five or more batters in 33 career starts.

Chandler Taylor (10th Round | 312 Overall | Houston Astros) - A power bat, Taylor finished the 2018 campaign with a team-high 13 home runs to rank eighth in the Southeastern Conference during the regular season. The junior paced the Crimson Tide with 38 walks to tie for fifth in the conference, totaling 20 of those free passes in league play.

A three-year starter at Alabama, Taylor was a force in the middle of the Crimson Tide lineup. He totaled 38 career home runs to tie for ninth all-time at UA while collecting 102 RBI and adding 101 runs scored during three years in Tuscaloosa. The left-handed slugger also ranks sixth in program records for career walks with 110 to his name.

Cobie Vance (18th Round | 533 Overall | Oakland A's) - Putting together his best season in 2018, Vance paced the Crimson Tide in hits (66), runs (43) and total bases (97) - eclipsing his previous career highs in each of those categories. He finished second on the 2018 roster in home runs with six, four of which came across his final 12 games. Vance led Alabama in hits during conference play with 38, while finishing atop the Tide in offensive ranks in SEC play for average (.297), runs (20) and total bases (57). He put together a big second half of the season, carrying a .302 (35-116) average over the final 28 contests, recording seven doubles, a triple and five home runs while surpassing his first half RBI total with 16 to close out his junior campaign. The junior was also honored as the Crimson Tide's representative on the SEC Community Service Team in 2018 to recognize his standout volunteer efforts during his time at the Capstone.

Vance proved to be one of the most reliable infielders during his three seasons in Tuscaloosa. The Fayetteville, N.C., native started all 168 games of his Alabama career and was the only member of the 2018 team to start all 56 contests. He collected 185 hits over his three years at UA, ranking in the top two for hits on the team in each season.

Jett Manning (20th Round | 586 Overall | San Francisco Giants)

- The Crimson Tide's primary shortstop in 2018, Manning started all 53 games he saw action in during the 2018 season. He ranked fourth on the team in hits with 45 and finished with a .251 average. Manning tied for fourth in multi-hit games with 10 for the Tide and collected a pair of five-game hitting streaks throughout his lone season at Alabama.

Manning spent his freshman and sophomore seasons at Frederick (Md.) Community College, where he compiled 131 hits and 71 RBI across two seasons with the Cougars.

Chandler Avant (30th Round | 890 Overall | New York Mets) - In 2018, Avant totaled a team-high 22 multi-hit efforts and a team-leading 12 multi-RBI performances while pacing UA in RBI with 38 and ranking second in runs scored with 37. He reached base safely in 47 of 55 games in his senior season, including reaching safely in the first 23 games of the 2018 slate.

For his career, Avant collected 230 hits and 100 RBI while adding 128 runs scored. He wrapped up his time in Tuscaloosa ranked eighth all-time in doubles with 53 across his four seasons. A reliable infielder, the four-year starter finished his time at Alabama ranked seventh in career assists at 500 and tied for 10th in double plays turned with 89.

ALABAMA VS. NO. 1 RANKED TEAMS

The Tide has played 37 games against the nation's top-ranked team, going 17-20 (.459) in those games. Most recently, Alabama lost two of three game against Vanderbilt in 2013. In 2009, Alabama took two of three from No. 1-ranked Georgia in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide played back-to-back weekends against the No. 1 team during the 2006 season, beating Mississippi State (March 31-April 2) and South Carolina (April 7-9) en route to a 4-2 record against the nation's top ranked team. In all, Alabama has won seven of its last eight regular-season series against the No. 1-ranked team, including series wins against Miami (1985), Mississippi State (1989), Auburn (1995), LSU (1997), Mississippi State (2006), South Carolina (2006) and Georgia (2009).

HONORS AND AWARDS

1977 MLB HALL OF FAME MEMBER - JOE SEWELL

Joe Sewell had a knack for this "funny game."

That knack has made him the only player in Crimson Tide baseball annals to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in the quaint little town of Cooperstown, N.Y.

The only other Crimson Tider in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is New York Yankees legendary broadcaster Mel Allen, who along with Florida alum Red Barber earned induction in 1978 as the inaugural winners of the Ford C. Frick Award.

Inducted in the Hall of Fame in 1977, Sewell's career spanned 14 seasons with the Cleveland Indians and New York Yankees.

From the moment he left the Capstone as student body president in 1919, Sewell's major league career was the stuff dreams are made of. After leading the Crimson Tide to the 1919 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship, Sewell was selected by the Indians and signed with the New Orleans team in the Southern Association.

The Titus, Ala., native made his Major League debut with the Indians in the heat of a 1920 pennant drive, after their everyday shortstop was killed after being hit with a submarine pitch. Sewell rose to the challenge and batted .329 over the final 22 games of the season to help the Indians clinch the American League pennant.

Alongside future Hall of Famers Stanley Coveleski, Tris Speaker and Bill Wambsganss, Sewell and the Indians disposed of the Brooklyn Robins in seven games, taking the 1920 series five games to two. Sewell batted only .174 (4-23) in his first trip to the fall classic, but was solid in the field in all seven games, helping the Indians lay claim to the World Series title.

He played 11 years for the Indians before joining the New York Yankees roster for the final three years of his outstanding Major League career.

Sewell once again tasted greatness with Yankees in 1932, when New York beat the Chicago Cubs in the most talked about World Series in history. The Yankees won 107 games in 1932 and swept the Cubs in the best-of-seven fall classic. The Yankees took the first two games at Yankee Stadium (12-6 and 5-2) before moving to Wrigley Field for games three and four.

In game three, Babe Ruth, a teammate and close friend of Sewell, made baseball history. Ruth's fifth inning at-bat off Chicago hurler Charley Root is still the most talked about home run in baseball history.

Ruth earlier had slugged a three-run home run in the first inning and legend has it that, after taking two called strikes in his third at-bat, the Sultan of Swat pointed to center field before he slammed a two-run home run over the head of Johnny Moore. It has become the most debated home run in the history of the fall classic.

The Yankees won the game 7-5 and then closed out the Cubs the following day (13-6) to win the 1932 World Championship. In a lineup filled with Hall of Famers from Frank Crosetti to Bill Dickey to Lou Gehrig to Ruth, Sewell batted .333 (5-15) in the four games with six runs scored and two RBI. He was on base when Ruth slugged his first-inning home run in game three and witnessed the famed "called shot" from the Yankees dugout.

Sewell also was a close friend and roommate with Yankee legend Lou Gehrig, whose career tragically was cut short due to ALS in the 1930s.

In 14 Major League seasons, Sewell batted .312 (2,226-7,132) with 1,051 career RBI. He played in nearly 2,000 career games and logged over 7,000 at-bats for the Indians and Yankees. He also had more than 2,000 hits, 1,000 runs scored and 1,000 RBI.

Sewell hit .300 or better in 10 of his 14 seasons in the big leagues. His best season was 1923 when he batted .353 (195-553) with the Indians. He collected a career-high 204 hits with the Indians in 1925 when he posted a .336 (204-608) batting average.

An outstanding fielder, Sewell led the American League in putouts and assists four times in his career and led the league in fielding percentage three times.

A "singles hitter" overshadowed by some the game's greatest sluggers, Sewell set five major league records that continue to pass the test of time: fewest strikeouts in a season (3, two times); consecutive games without a strikeout (115); consecutive at-bats without a strikeout (437); most seasons of 500 or more at-bats with fewer than four strikeouts (4); and fewest career strikeouts (114).

Throughout his sparkling 14-year career at the pinnacle of the baseball profession, Sewell turned in numbers that simply are amazing to the average baseball fan. For instance, his 114 career strikeouts in more than 7,000 career at-bats averages out to one strikeout for every 63 at-bats, and one strikeout in every 16 games played.

And still years later, in 1964 at age 66, Sewell, a Tuscaloosa resident and businessman since his college days, took over the Crimson Tide's baseball program as head coach. In his seven-year tenure, Alabama compiled a 114-99 (.535) record, which included winning the 1968 SEC Championship and a trip to the NCAA District III Playoffs in North Carolina.

Sewell was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in 1977, along with Ernie Banks, Martin Dihigo, Pop Lloyd, Al Lopez and Amos Rusie. He is one of 11 Alabama natives to be enshrined in Cooperstown, joining fellow legends Hank Aaron (Mobile), Monte Irvin (Columbia), Heinie Manush (Tuscumbia), Willie Mays (Westfield), Willie McCovey (Mobile), Satchel Paige (Mobile), Ozzie Smith (Mobile), Don Sutton (Clio), Billy Williams (Whistler) and Early Wynn (Hartford).

Sewell died on March 6, 1990, in Mobile, Ala., after a lengthy illness. At the time of his death he was the oldest living baseball Hall of Famer at 91 years of age.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD - MEL ALLEN

Mel Allen is as much a part of the national pastime as the squeeze play, hot dogs, and pennants flapping in the breeze. And he never played in the big leagues. Instead he broadcasted the game, and that allowed the fans to play the games over and over in their minds. His voice is the one that millions of fans associate with the game of baseball.

Born Melvin Allen Israel, the son of a traveling textile representative in Birmingham, and raised all over Alabama, he was a spindly student manager for the Crimson Tide football and baseball teams when he received his chance to announce games. Allen's first assignment behind the microphone was doing play-by-play of a football game between Tulane and Alabama, his beloved alma mater.

While a student at Alabama, Allen sold shoes, coached speech and debate, and ultimately earned his law degree before winning an audition to announce in New York for CBS Radio. After the audition with CBS in 1936, Allen broadcast his first World Series for the network in 1938. He joined the Yankees the following year and stayed for 25 more, delighting millions of baseball fans with his warm sign-on – "Hello, everybody!" – and his trademark phrases "How about that!" and "Going, going, gone!"

Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees from 1939 to 1964, covering the team that aroused more passion than any other in baseball. With his vivid phrases and pleasing Alabama drawl, he called many of the great events in the game: the Babe's good-bye, Larsen's perfect game in the 1956 World Series, Mantle's heroics, Maris' record-shattering summer (1961), Casey's barbs and Yogi's convoluted pronouncements.

"Mel Allen meant as much to Yankee tradition as legends like Ruth, Gehrig, DiMaggio and Mantle," Yankees owner George Steinbrenner said. "He was the voice of the Yankees."

In an era before television, millions of radio listeners around the nation envisioned the game through the descriptions of this thoughtful and articulate Alabamian who prided himself on being both a reporter and storyteller.

Allen later moved to the Milwaukee Braves in 1965, went on to broadcast for the Cleveland Indians and handled a variety of assignments for NBC. He returned as the voice of the New York Yankees in 1970s and began a 19-year association with This Week in Baseball as host of the popular television program.

Former Crimson Tide baseball manager and public address announcer Mel Allen was the voice of the New York Yankees for 39 years. Allen served as emcee for "Babe Ruth Day" at Yankee Stadium.

In his 58 years of sports broadcasting, Allen did it all. He called thousands of Yankees games, 24 Major League Baseball World Series, 20 All-Star Games, 14 Rose Bowls, five Orange Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and more than 2,000 newsreels.

A winner of numerous industry, listener and viewer awards, Allen is a member of National Baseball Hall of Fame (as the first Ford C. Frick winner in 1978), National (USA) Sportswriters and Broadcasters Hall of Fame (1972), the American Sportscasters Association Hall of Fame (1985), the Radio Hall of Fame (1988), the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, the University of Alabama Communication Hall of Fame (1995) and was enshrined to Monument Park at Yankee Stadium (July 25, 1999).

Decades ago, Allen sat next to a weakened Lou Gehrig in the dugout before a game. Gehrig soon would die from the disease that forced his emotional, early farewell from the game.

"Mel, sometimes your descriptions of the game are the only thing that keeps me going," Gehrig said.

Allen went into the tunnel and cried like a baby.

How about that?

HONORS AND AWARDS

1983 GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD/BASEBALL AMERICA PLAYER OF THE YEAR - DAVID MAGADAN

Never before or since has an Alabama baseball player had a season at the plate like David Magadan did in 1983.

The Alabama junior shattered school and Southeastern Conference records that still stand today in becoming the 1983 Golden Spikes Award winner, presented annually by USA Baseball.

Magadan, who concluded the 1983 season with six school career records (at-bats, runs, hits, RBI, doubles, total bases and batting average), was a major contributor in Alabama's national runner-up spot to Texas at the College World Series. He paced the Crimson Tide to winning the NCAA South Regional and Southeastern Conference titles en route to a 46-11 record, one the most successful campaigns in school history.

After batting an incredible nation-leading .525 (114-217) as a junior, Magadan was voted the 1983 College "Player of the Year" by Baseball America and he also led the team in hits (114), doubles (31), total bases (180) and slugging percentage (.829) during his record-setting campaign.

Magadan was a consensus first team All-America selection by the American Baseball Coaches Association, the Sporting News, Baseball America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association during the 1983 season and was a three-time All-SEC selection at the Capstone.

Two years earlier, Magadan hit safely in his initial 27 games as a freshman in 1981 and as a junior, went an incredible 10-for-11 (.909) at the 1983 SEC Tournament in Starkville, Miss., which included a five-hit game (2 doubles, 2 HRs) against Florida, en route to being named the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. He also set the CWS record by hitting safely in his first eight trips to the plate and wound up batting .550 (11-20) at Omaha in five games.

After his freshman season at Alabama, Magadan led his American Legion team to the 1981 American Legion World Series title and was named the "Sports Club Amateur of the Year" when Tampa Post 248 won the national title. Magadan also is recognized in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his amateur accomplishments in 1981.

The Tampa native played in 162 games during his Alabama career and batted .439 (268-610) with 64 doubles, 14 home runs and 188 RBI. His .439 batting average still ranks among the leaders in Division I baseball and remains atop the SEC record books as the highest career average in league history.

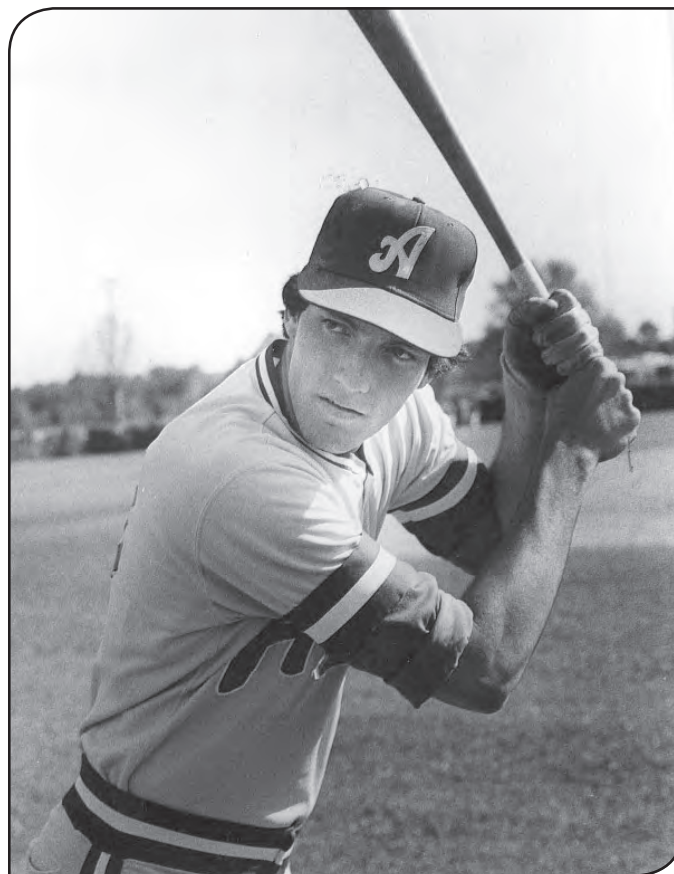

Magadan still holds Alabama records for single-season batting average (.525, 1983), career batting average (.439, 1981-83), single-season hits (114, 1983), single season doubles (31, 1983) and single-season RBI (95, 1983). He also set the Alabama standards for highest batting average for a freshman (.399, 1981) and junior (.525, 1983) and most RBI (95, 1983) by a junior and shares the single-game record with five hits, a feat he accomplished an Alabama record three times against Alabama Christian (April 16, 1983), Florida (May 13, 1983) and Arizona State (June 4, 1983).

First drafted by the Boston Red Sox out of Tampa's Jesuit High School, Magadan then was one of six Alabama players selected in the 1983 MLB Draft. He signed with the New York Mets and was assigned to the Columbia, S.C. Mets in the class A South Atlantic League in his first pro ball assignment. In that first summer, Magadan batted .336 with three home runs and 32 RBI.

Magadan made his Major League debut for the Mets against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 17, 1986, as the starting first baseman at Shea Stadium. In the game, he went 3-for-4 with two RBI, including the game-winner in the eighth inning that clinched the National League Eastern Division title for the eventual world champions.

In 1990, Magadan finished third in the National League batting race with a career-best .328 (148-451) average. He played 16 years in the Major Leagues before retiring from the game after the 2001 season. In those 16 seasons, Magadan hit .288 (1,197-4,159) with 42 home runs and 495 RBI in 1,582 career big-league games.

After his playing days, Magadan was named the roving minor league hitting instructor by the San Diego Padres, before being promoted as the big-league hitting coach prior to the 2003 season. After four seasons with the Padres, Magadan was named the hitting coach for the Boston Red Sox in 2007. After working six years in Boston, Magadan began working as the hitting instructor for the Texas Rangers in 2013, a title which he held through the 2015 Major League Baseball season. In the fall of 2015, Magadan became the hitting coach for the Arizona Diamondbacks, a title which he still holds today.

In June of 2010, Magadan joined former Alabama All-American and head coach Joe Sewell as the only Tide players to be inducted into the College Baseball Hall of Fame. In 2014, he was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Alabama Crimson Tide representatives Eli Gold and Major Ogilvie. In the fall of 2015, the .525 Club at the newly renovated Sewell-Thomas Stadium was named in honor of his average during Magadan's historic 1983 season. Magadan was in attendance for the Crimson Tide's first ever alumni event, in which the room was officially opened.

1999 DICK HOWSER TROPHY FINALIST - ANDY PHILLIPS

Andy Phillips is one of the most decorated players in the history of Alabama baseball.

A member of coach Jim Wells' first signing class, Phillips rewrote the Alabama record books and in the process took the Crimson Tide baseball program to new heights with three trips to the College World Series in his four-year career.

That impact was not limited to the Crimson Tide baseball family, as his talents were recognized nationally by writers, broadcasters and professional scouts.

A consensus All-America selection as a senior, Phillips was named the 1999 National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association District III Player of the Year and finished runner up to Baylor's Jason Jennings for the 1999 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association to the best player in college baseball.

Florida State's Marshall McDougal, Cal State Fullerton's Spencer Oborn and Rice's Mario Ramos also were finalists for the Howser Trophy, named for the former Florida State infielder and Kansas City Royals manager.

Phillips also was named first team All-American by the NCBWA as well as being a member of the 1999 NCBWA Super All-American squad.

In addition to the NCBWA honors, Phillips was named first team All-American by College Baseball Insider and was a third team All-America selection by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Demopolis, Ala., native wrapped up his Alabama career as the school record-holder in eight career statistical categories, including most games played (244), games started (224), at-bats (905), runs scored (222), total hits (322), home runs (61), RBI (224) and total bases (590). He also ranked second in career doubles (63) and triples (11), and was third in assists (537) and 10th in walks (86) when his career was complete.

As a senior in 1999, Phillips set the standard of excellence for Crimson Tide baseball. He played in 64 games and batted .398 (103-259) with 22 home runs and 66 RBI. He added 71 runs scored, 22 doubles, 30 walks and 16 stolen bases for an Alabama team that captured the SEC Tournament Championship and finished third at the College World Series.

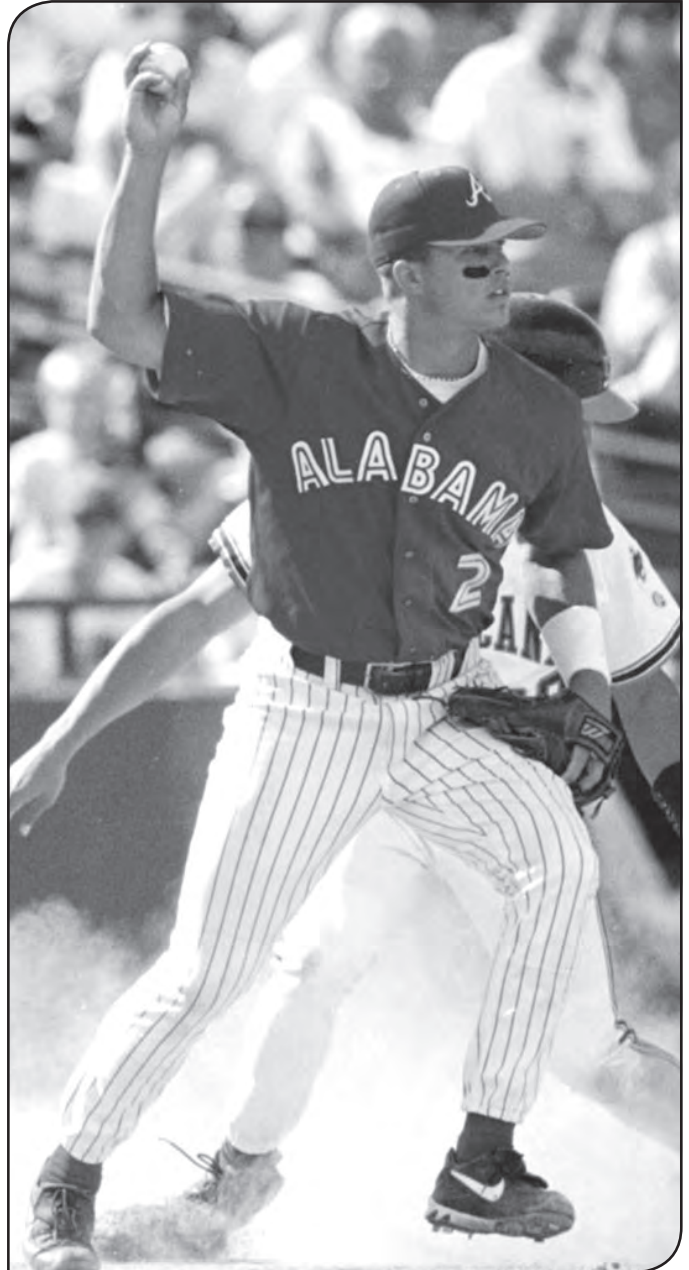

Phillips also set Alabama single-season records for total bases (203) and collected the most home runs (22) and RBI (66) by a shortstop at Alabama.

The former Tide shortstop also set the SEC record with a 36-game hitting streak during his final season at Alabama, breaking the old standard of 33 games set by LSU second baseman Todd Walker (1993). During his record-setting hitting streak, Phillips batted .407 (66-162) with 17 home runs and 45 RBI.

In 1998, Phillips was named the Sporting News National Player of the Week (April 1, 1998), after hitting .500 (8-16) with six runs scored, three home runs and 11 RBI in wins over Southern Miss and Mississippi State.

Phillips was just as successful off the field, earning his degree from Alabama in 1999, while being an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is an accomplished singer. Twice during his career, Phillips sang the National Anthem prior to a Crimson Tide home game at Sewell-Thomas Stadium. A three-time All-SEC selection, Phillips also was named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team for his many hours of community service.

Following an 11-year professional baseball career, which included five seasons in Major League Baseball, Phillips returned to Alabama as the hitting and infield coach, beginning with the 2011 season and ending in 2016 after head coach Mitch Gaspard's retirement. His MLB debut came in 2004 for the New York Yankees, and he homered on the first pitch he saw as a Major League player. Phillips played for the Yankees from 2004-07, before playing his final season in the majors with the Cincinnati Reds in 2008. Prior to returning to Alabama, he played two seasons in the Nippon Professional League in Japan.

2002 JOHNNY BENCH AWARD - JEREMY BROWN

The most decorated catcher in University of Alabama baseball history, Jeremy Brown was named the winner of the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, presented annually by the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission to the nation's best catcher.

"The Greater Wichita Sports Commission would like to congratulate all of the award finalists and especially Jeremy Brown, the 2002 Johnny Bench National Collegiate Catcher of the Year," Bob Hanson, President and CEO of the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, said. "Jeremy represents The University of Alabama in a remarkable manner."

Brown edged out Southern California junior Alberto Concepcion and University of Houston junior Chris Snyder to win the 2002 award.

Brown said upon receiving the 2002 Johnny Bench Award, "I'd like to thank my family and my coaches for all of their support over the past four years. It's truly an honor to receive this award from the best catcher of all time, Mr. Johnny Bench."

It is the highest honor awarded to an Alabama baseball player since David Magadan earned the 1983 Golden Spikes Award, presented annually to the best player in college baseball. The Golden Spikes award is the baseball equivalent to college football's Heisman Trophy award.

Bench, a native of Oklahoma City, and Major League Baseball Hall of Famer, was on hand to present the award to Brown. Bench was the starting catcher for the Cincinnati Reds' back-to-back World Series championship teams in 1975 and 1976.

Former Los Angeles Dodger first baseman Steve Garvey delivered the keynote address to more than 350 people in attendance at the Grand Eagle Ballroom at the downtown Wichita Hyatt Regency hotel. The banquet recognizes the achievements and dedication of local youth, high school, college and professional coaches in the Wichita area. Alabama head coach Jim Wells was also in attendance to see his All-American catcher receive the award.

A two-year starter behind the plate for Alabama, Brown was a runner-up to Baylor's Kelly Shoppach in the 2001 Johnny Bench Award voting. Brown is one of five Southeastern Conference catchers to win the Johnny Bench Award, joining LSU's Brad Cresse, who won the inaugural award in 2000, Mississippi State's Ed Easley in 2007, Florida's Mike Zunino in 2012 and Ole Miss' Stuart Turner the following year in 2013.

A native of Hueytown, Ala., Brown appeared in 66 games for Alabama as a senior and hit a .320 average (70-219) with 11 home runs and 64 RBI. He also set the Alabama single-season record with 69 walks, surpassing the previous total of 66 walks held by Bret Elbin in 1983.

Brown made only one error for Alabama in his final 119 games at the Capstone. He set the Tide single-season record with a 1.000 fielding percentage in 2001 and made only one error in 2002.

Brown was second in the SEC with seven pickoffs and ranked among the league leaders by throwing out 43 percent of his attempted base stealers.

A first-round pick of the Oakland Athletics, Brown concluded his career at Alabama as the all-time leader for games played (251), games started (251), runs scored (244), walks (207) and putouts (1,660). He still remains as the only player in SEC history to collect 300 career hits (307) and 200 career walks (207).

Named a 2002 second team All-American by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, Brown also was a first team All-SEC pick for the second consecutive year. He was also chosen as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and was a finalist for the 2002 Dick Howser Trophy, presented by the St. Petersburg Area Chamber of Commerce and Verizon.

2003 DISTRICT III PLAYER OF THE YEAR - BEAU HEAROD

Beau Hearod went where few University of Alabama players had gone before. The slugger from Jennings, La., had a phenomenal 2003 season and in the process led the Southeastern Conference in both home runs (20) and RBI (82) in his final campaign with the Crimson Tide.

A first team All-SEC selection, Hearod became the first Alabama player to lead the SEC in home runs since Doug Duke smacked a league-leading 27 four-baggers as a junior in 1986. Hearod became the fourth player in school history to lead the league in home runs, joining Stan Moss (7, 1968), Butch Hobson (13, 1973) and Duke (1986) as the league's home run champ. Hearod also was the first Crimson Tide slugger to lead the league in RBI since Duke's league-best 82 in 1986.

After putting up those staggering numbers during the rugged 62-game season, which included 34 games against SEC teams, Hearod was tabbed as the District III Player of the Year by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association, marking the second consecutive year and the third time since the inception of the award in 1999 that an Alabama player was bestowed the top in District III.

Former Alabama catcher Jeremy Brown, a first-round selection by the Oakland Athletics in 2002 MLB Draft and the 2002 Johnny Bench award winner, was named the 2002 District III Player of the Year following an outstanding senior season. Andy Phillips, the school's all-time home runs leader, won the inaugural District III Player of the Year award in 1999 and was one of the three finalists for the prestigious Dick Howser Trophy, presented to the NCBWA Player of the Year.

Other 2003 district winners included Boston College pitcher Chris Lambert (District I), St. John's outfielder Mike Rozema (District II), South Carolina lefty David Marchbanks (District IV), Ohio State pitcher Scott Lewis (District V), Nebraska first baseman Matt Hooper (District VI), Tulane first baseman and left hand pitcher Michael Aubrey (District VII), Southern University shortstop Rickie Weeks (District VIII), New Mexico first baseman Billy Belcher (District VIII) and Arizona State shortstop Dustin Pedroia (District IX).

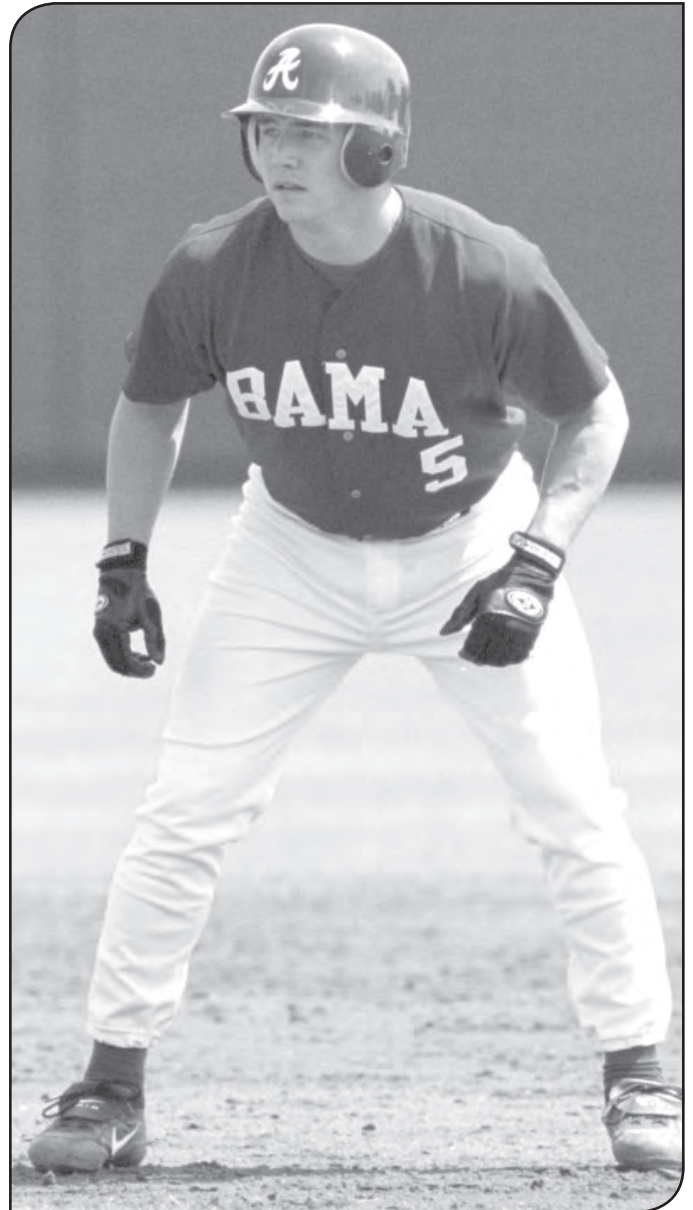

From the ranks of these 10 District winners, Southern University's Rickie Weeks was named the winner of the 2003 Dick Howser Trophy.

As a senior, Hearod started all 62 games and batted .346 (80-231) with 20 home runs and 82 RBI. He was also named the Most Valuable Player of the 2003 SEC Tournament at the Hoover Met, leading the Crimson Tide to its second straight postseason title and sixth under coach Jim Wells.

Hearod ranked ninth nationally in home runs (20) and 17th nationally with 0.32 home runs per game. He was sixth in total RBI and ninth with 1.32 RBI per game. He also led the SEC and ranked 27th nationally with a whopping .719 slugging percentage.

In his three-year career with Alabama, Hearod played in 177 games and batted .327 (210-643) with 40 home runs and 191 RBI. He also totaled 141 runs scored, 43 doubles, five triples, 61 walks and a .595 career slugging mark.

He wrapped up his Alabama career with five grand slams, one shy of the school, SEC and NCAA record set by the Tide's Mike Pitisci in 1984.

Wade LeBlanc had a freshman season like no other in the 100-plus year history of The University of Alabama baseball program.

The talented freshman left-hander racked up just about every postseason award available as he became the first rookie in Crimson Tide baseball history to earn National and SEC Freshman of the Year honors.

LeBlanc was tabbed the 2004 National Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper after being named the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year at the conclusion of the regular season.

LeBlanc's turning point in the season was the back-to-back wins against No. 6 LSU and 10th-ranked Florida in early May. He beat LSU, 8-2, on May 1 in Baton Rouge and then shut out the high-powered Gators in Tuscaloosa on May 7, allowing only four hits and striking out nine batters.

"I guess the LSU and Florida games back-to-back really told me what kind of season I was having," LeBlanc said. "This whole season was crazy. I never thought I would have a year like this and be named National and SEC Freshman of the Year. This is a great honor."

LeBlanc finished his outstanding freshman season by setting Alabama freshman records for innings pitched (112.2), strikeouts (98) and complete games (8) while tying the Alabama freshman record with eight wins.

In 16 games, including 15 starts, LeBlanc posted an 8-4 record and 2.08 ERA. He worked 112.2 innings and allowed 87 hits, 37 runs and 26 earned runs, with 26 walks and 98 strikeouts. LeBlanc also threw eight complete games and pitched three shutouts in 2004.

In addition to his freshman records, LeBlanc also ranks among the school's top 10 single-season leaders in several categories. His eight complete games tied Gene Lary (1955) for second place on the school's single-season list. The three shutouts matched Mike Innes (1968) and Drew Blocker (1974) for third-place on the single-season shutout charts. LeBlanc's 112.2 innings pitched tied Dean Hayes (1983) for seventh place on the single-season innings, while the 98 strikeouts tied Jarrod Kingrey (1998) and Steve Shoemaker (1994) for 10th place in Alabama history.

LeBlanc was tabbed a third team All-American by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA) and Baseball America. He was the only freshman named to the 2004 Baseball America All-America team. LeBlanc also was named to the 2004 SEC All-Freshman team and was a second team All-SEC selection as voted on by the league's 12 head coaches.

SEBaseball.com tabbed him as the 2004 SEC Freshman of the Year as well as a first team All-SEC selection. He also was selected to the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-South Region team.

LeBlanc was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the second round of the 2006 MLB Amateur Draft. He made his Major League debut on Sept. 8, 2008 for the Padres. Through the 2011 season, LeBlanc had appeared in 54 games, 52 as a starter, with a 17-22 overall record in four years with the Padres.

He spent the 2012 season in the Miami Marlins organization. After starting the year in Triple-A, LeBlanc made 25 appearances with nine Major League starts. He was 2-5 with a 3.67 ERA in his first season with the Marlins. In 2013, LeBlanc started the season in the big leagues where he appeared in 13 games with seven starts for the Marlins. He was then picked up on waivers by Houston, where he made four relief appearances for the Astros.

In the 2014 offseason, LeBlanc signed a minor league contract with the Los Angeles Angels on Anaheim. He began the season in Triple-A Salt Lake, and eventually got the call-up to the Angels on May 25. He was designated for assignment by Los Angeles and picked up by the New York Yankees but was eventually designated for assignment once again. He returned to the Angles in the midst of a playoff race and spent the finality of the 2014 season in Los Angeles.

For his MLB career, LeBlanc was 21-33 with a 4.47 ERA (222 ER/446.2 IP), making 107 appearances with 71 starts while striking out 302 batters.

2009 SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR - KENT MATTHES

Alabama right fielder Kent Matthes wrapped up a remarkable senior season by winning Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors and being tabbed a consensus All-American. Matthes is the first Alabama player to win SEC Player of the Year honors since the league began presenting the award in 1993.

"Kent Matthes had a great year and deserves this honor," former Alabama head coach Jim Wells said. "It has been great to sit in the dugout and watch him do the things he has done this year. He has had a great year and put up some incredible numbers. You read sometimes about guys having years like this, but he usually isn't on your team. This year we have that player and it has been fun watching him on and off the field."

Matthes was also named first team All-American by every baseball publication, including the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), Rivals and PING.

"It is a great honor to be recognized by the best college baseball league with all the talented players we have in the SEC," Matthes said. "It is an honor to be named SEC Player of the Year and to be able to accomplish the feat as a senior. This has been an incredible season and I am happy to be a part of this team."

"I was looking to take advantage of my senior year and make the most of it," said Matthes. "I worked hard in the offseason with Dax (Norris), got hot early, hit a lot of home runs and they kept coming. I tried to stay focused on winning each game and not the stats."

The senior was named the 2009 NCBWA District III Player of the Year, was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award, a semifinalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and a member of the ABCA All-South Region team. The Orlando, Fla., native hit .358 with 28 home runs and 81 RBI for the Crimson Tide. He led the SEC in home runs, RBI, total bases (174) and slugging percentage (.883). He was also third in runs scored (65) and sixth in hitting.

Matthes set the Alabama single-season record with 28 home runs, which tied for the national home run lead with Middle Tennessee State's Bryce Brentz. Matthes is the fifth NCAA statistical national champion in school history. He broke the Alabama single-season home run record with his 28th home run against South Carolina on May 20 at the SEC Tournament. He slugged his 27th home run of the season in the Tide's regular-season finale at Auburn on May 16 to tie Doug Duke's record set in 1986.

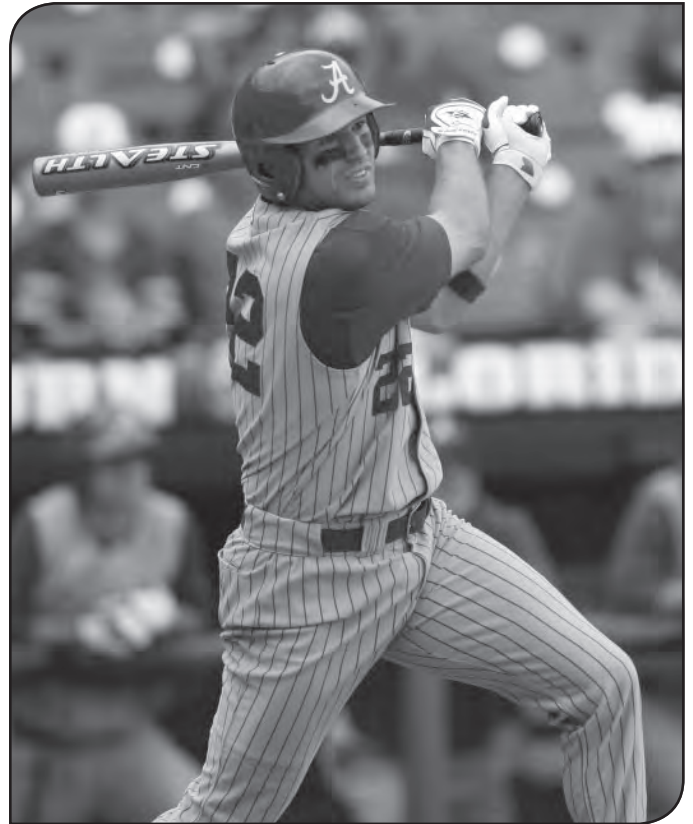

The 2009 home run barrage from Matthes included four multi-home run games and one walkoff home run while 16 of his 28 home runs tied the game or gave Alabama the lead (10 go-ahead home runs). He also had nine game-winning RBI in 2009.

Matthes set the Alabama record with a home run in six straight games and twice was named National and SEC Player of the Week. He hit for the cycle on Feb. 24 against Nicholls State and followed with a walkoff 10th inning home run the next day.

Drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the fourth round of the 2009 MLB Amateur Draft, Matthes was named the 2011 California League's Most Valuable Player for the Class A Modesto Nuts after an outstanding season at the plate. He finished the 2011 season with a .334 average, 23 home runs, 39 doubles and 95 RBI.

Matthes spent the 2012 season in Double-A, playing for the Tulsa Drillers where he hit .214 with 17 home runs, 18 doubles and 40 RBI. In 2013, Matthes opened the year in Tulsa, before being called up to Triple-A Colorado Springs for the final 47 games of the season. With the Triple-A Sky Sox, Matthes hit .297 with 11 home runs and 31 RBI.

After being claimed off waivers by the Oakland A's, the former Tide standout spent 2014 split between Double-A Midland and Triple-A Sacramento where he hit .232 (92-396) with 26 doubles, 16 home runs and 72 RBI while adding 57 runs.

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY:

Alabama has compiled a 57-54 (.514) all-time SEC Tournament record, dating back to its first appearance in the 1950 SEC Playoffs, a best-of-five series win over Kentucky, the SEC Eastern Division champion. The Crimson Tide is 49-43 (.533) since the league moved to an SEC Tournament format in 1977.

In SEC Tournament games at the Hoover Met (formerly Regions Park), Alabama is 37-25 (.597) with four SEC postseason titles in 1996, 1999, 2002 and 2003.

The Crimson Tide is 7-1 in eight SEC Tournament championship games, winning the title against five different teams. Following a 4-3 loss to LSU in the 2010 SEC championship game, Alabama is 3-1 in the deciding game against the Tigers. Alabama defeated LSU to win the SEC Tournament championship in 1995, 1997 and 2002. The Tide also has championship game wins over Mississippi State (1993), Florida (1996), Arkansas (1999) and South Carolina (2002).

RECORDS & HISTORY

SEC BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament will be held at Hoover Metropolitan Stadium from May 21-26, 2019. This is the 22nd consecutive year the tournament has been played in Hoover and the 23rd time overall.

The 2019 SEC Baseball Tournament will host 12 teams for the fourth straight year, after increasing from 10 to 12 in 2013. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single-elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday, before returning to single-elimination play on Saturday and Sunday. A total of 17 games will be played over the six days.

The 12 teams will be seeded 1-12, with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another bye later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western divisions, plus 10 at-large bids, seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage.

The tournament began in 1977 with the first and second-place teams from the Eastern and Western divisions meeting at campus sites to determine the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. In 1986, the SEC abandoned divisional play and the top four teams in the league standings qualified for the postseason tournament at campus sites. The 1990 SEC Tournament was played at the Hoover Met, the first off-campus tournament in league history.

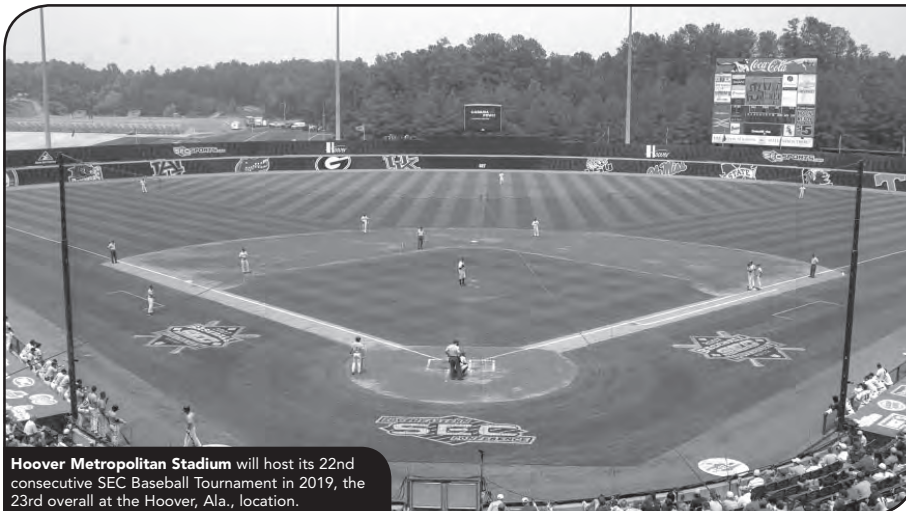

The format remained the same until the league expanded to 12 teams in 1992, adding Arkansas and South Carolina. In 1992, the league went back to divisional play and invited the top four teams from each division to the SEC Tournament at the Superdome in New Orleans.

The SEC instituted another change in 1993, as the league had two separate divisional tournaments over the next three years. The overall SEC champion and NCAA automatic qualifier was the team with the best conference combined winning percentage from the regular season and postseason tournaments. Alabama won the SEC Western Division tournament in Starkville in 1995, the first of three straight tournament titles for the Tide.

The 1996 and 1997 tournaments were eight-team events in Hoover and Columbus, Ga., respectively but those events introduced one-game play-ins. Prior to the expansion to 10 teams in 2012, an eight-team double-elimination format was used for 14 years (1998-2011).

Alabama is second all-time with seven SEC Tournament titles, most recently in 2003. LSU leads the way with 12 SEC Tournament championships, including back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010. Overall, nine of the 14 SEC teams have won at least one SEC Tournament crown since 1977.

After Rob Childress led Texas A&M to the tournament title in 2016, 20 different head coaches had won at least one SEC Tournament championship. Former Hoover Metropolitan Stadium will host its 22nd consecutive SEC Baseball Tournament in 2019, the 23rd overall at the Hoover, Ala., location.

Alabama head coach Jim Wells and former LSU coach Skip Bertman have the most all time with six championships, while former Mississippi State head coach Ron Polk won five tournament titles. Florida has the most coaches to win the SEC Tournament with four, including Jay Bergman (1981), Jack Rhine (1982), Joe Arnold (1984, 1988 and 1991) and Kevin O'Sullivan (2011, 2015).

Alabama has been involved in the two largest championship game crowds in tournament history. The Tide's 9-3 win over Arkansas in the 1999 SEC Championship game on May 23 drew 16,165 fans, the largest crowd in tournament history and second-largest crowd in Hoover Met annals. The Tide's 6-2 win over South Carolina on May 26, 2002, drew 13,367 fans, the second-largest for a title game in tournament lore.

The Hoover Met seats 10,800 for baseball, but can accommodate more than 16,000 when the patio, banquet and side grassy areas are used. The stadium also houses 12 suites and state-of-the-art dressing and training rooms. Wireless internet access was added in 2004, concourse and signage renovation was done in 2005, and finally a second-level pressbox expansion, new stadium seating and an exterior facelift in 2007 completed a $4.5 million renovation project. A new video scoreboard was added in 2008.

The SEC will keep its conference baseball tournament in suburban Birmingham for the 2020 year and could stretch its stay to five.

FORMAT AND SEEDING

The 12-team tournament will consist of two six-team brackets. The two bracket winners will play in a single championship game on Sunday. Seeding for the SEC Tournament is based on each team's winning percentage during the SEC regular season. The division champions shall be automatically seeded No. 1 and No. 2, based on winning percentage in conference competition. The rest shall be seeded No. 3 through No. 12 based on conference winning percentage. Once a team is seeded, it shall maintain that same seeded position throughout the tournament.

TIE-BREAKERS

Two-Team Tie

When two teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken):

1. Win-loss results of head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. If they are divisional opponents:
 - a. Won-lost percentage within their division (over the 15-game SEC division schedule).
 - b. Won-lost percentage of the two teams versus the No. 1 team in their division (and proceeding through the No. 6 team, if necessary).
3. If two teams are not divisional opponents:
 - a. Win-loss record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed using common opponents only (and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary).
4. Coin flip by the Commissioner.

Three-Team Tie (or more)

When three or more teams are tied for a finish, the following procedure will be used (in order until the tie is broken).

Note: If the three tied teams have three different records against each other, they shall be seeded in best-percentage order. Otherwise, once the three-team tie is broken, the two-team tie-breaker will be used.

1. If all three teams are common opponents: Total won-lost percentage of games played among the tied teams.
2. Won-lost percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 8 seed, if necessary, using common opponents only.
3. If three or more teams still are tied, the Commissioner will conduct a draw.

CRIMSON TIDE SPORTS NETWORK

ON THE RADIO

Jim Carabin
General Manager, CTSN

Chris Stewart
Play-By-Play

Lee Tracey
Play-by-Play/Color

All the exciting action of Alabama baseball can be heard throughout the 2019 season on the Crimson Tide Sports Network.

The baseball network is a service of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing, which is a property of Learfield Communications. An industry leader for more than four decades, Learfield has a deep presence in the college athletics landscape nationwide. It manages the multimedia and sponsorship rights for 125 collegiate institutions, conferences and arenas, and supports athletic departments at all competitive levels as title sponsor of the prestigious Learfield Directors' Cup. Learfield also provides its collegiate partners access to professional concessions and ticket sales; licensing and trademark consulting; digital and social platform expertise; and venue and technology systems through its affiliated companies. For more information, visit learfield.com. Jim Carabin serves as CTSN's general manager.

For the 21st consecutive season, CTSN will carry the Crimson Tide baseball games on a state-wide network. The games also are available on the internet and select Southeastern Conference games will be aired on XM Satellite Radio. The network's flagship stations are in Birmingham and Tuscaloosa. Birmingham affiliates include WJOX-FM (94.5) and WJOX-AM (690). The Tuscaloosa affiliate is WDGM-FM 102.9.

Alabama baseball is also the topic of conversation each Monday night from 6-7 p.m. on the popular weekly call-in show "Hey, Coach!" Stewart hosts the program and chats with head coach Brad Bohannon and Alabama players each Monday night throughout the season. The show airs live from Baumhower's Victory Grille in Tuscaloosa. Fans can join the program by calling toll free (877) 202.2262.

The Crimson Tide's unique 30-minute weekly sports magazine television program, "TIDETV This Week," shows highlights, interviews and previews on the Crimson Tide baseball team all season.

Chris Stewart and Lee Tracey will call the exciting action of Alabama baseball this season on the 30-plus station network.

A veteran play-by-play voice, Stewart enters his 20th season on the Tide baseball broadcasts. He is a five-time (2004, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2016) Alabama Sportscaster of the Year recipient by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA).

Stewart is in his 31st year in broadcasting, with the 2018-19 men's basketball season being his 17th as the play-by-play announcer for the Crimson Tide Sports Network. In addition to his role as the voice of Crimson Tide basketball, Stewart also serves as an in-booth reporter for CTSN's radio coverage of Crimson Tide football and as the television host of "The Nick Saban Show".

Prior to taking over the Alabama basketball play-by-play job, the Fairfield, Ala., native spent eight seasons as the radio announcer for Birmingham Southern College.

Stewart has done additional work for CSS, ESPN Regional, and Fox Sports South.

A 1992 graduate of the University of Montevallo, Stewart was honored with the school's 2009 Alumni Achievement Award. He is married to the former Christy Carmichael and has three children – Anne, Parker and Hudson.

Lee Tracey, a veteran sports broadcaster in Alabama, returns for his ninth season calling the action for the Alabama baseball team for CTSN.

Prior to the 2011 season, Tracey provided play-by-play for Alabama baseball two different times in the past – once in the late 1980s and again from 1992-94. He also was the radio voice of Alabama women's basketball from 1992-94.

Tracey was the producer on Alabama football broadcasts for the Crimson Tide Sports Network from 1987-90 and was the sports anchor/director for WCFT-TV in Tuscaloosa from 1994-96.

Currently, Tracey is the owner and president of TOPsports, a company he founded in 1996. TOPsports covers all Tuscaloosa area sports, including University of Alabama athletics and local high schools.
